TRADITIONALISM

Judaism, not jews - or just jews? This book is the 3 aspect of the jewish problem" prepared the ^{as a solution of the jewish problem} idea that it is Judaism that reinforces the existence of the jew as a biological group. This conception was further taken up by Alfred Rosenberg in "Mein Kampf" where he claimed that the only way to find a solution to the jewish problem was to destroy the genetic basis of the jew through mixing them against their halachic law, in comparison of the rabbit gender-dependent formula for inheritance which requires a speeded inbreeding via the maternal line and passing the paternal line. The idea is not exactly similar with these criteria of the formula for inheritance. Thus it can be established as a fact that Judaism as a creed, a practice-theoretical/biological worldview and practice reinforces the perpetuation of the jewish type. Some have speculated that to simply ban Judaism is to solve the ^{jewish} problem but the latter would deny this premise as Judaism is merely a reinforcer and not necessarily or sufficient cause of the continuance of jews but rather merely a strengthening force that exists in the creation of the type. It is the currently existent soul of the jew which is the main driver of jewry both as a formative type and as a malignant, predatory influence upon the world. The soul of the jew crystallizes as above & below in the jewish type and the jewish type is this collective final entity that reinforces its collective soul through its misdeeds, practices such that the existence of the concrete biological material Jew is a reinforcement of the soul and exists upon the negative & predatory misdeeds, feeding the chaos with the energy of the new Jew which is denied through the marginalization of war, revolution, depression, cooking poverty, chaos and death. The more chaos the Jew creates the more chaos is released by the new Jew and which energy is absorbed into the Jew's overall soul as the power of the Jew just of the energy vampire who misuses chaos as a medium of feeding of the pain, death and fear and lust energy emitted, rather dampened by the new Jew. This is the reason why all relations with the Jew reduce to chaos and fear because the Jew's overall acts through the physical Jew as an instrument to draw that energy through triggering new Jews to release their bioenergy just as nations feed - murder, what Jews draw the energy in the form of blood, action, money and pain energy from their victims - this is what occurs to varying degrees in the actual places in all relations with Jews and is the predominant reason why all relations with Jews should be proscribed, that merely to 'get rid of Judaism' or a creed around which Jews polarize to some extent is inadequate and merely a recipe for self destruction and a gradual weakening. This is not a new ideology where the problem as the banning or banning or exposure of all ^{followers and beliefs on the exposure of} Jewish Jew were adequate. Indeed it is a question of following the prescribed course of a mixed Jewry at a minimum: to enforce mixture against halachic law and simultaneously to expose the religious creed of the Jew in its negative influence to that the enforcement and exposure of the Jew's own soul does not continue and that the Jew themselves who is most likely to leave to exist as the anti-race race. Both Judaism and Jew are the problem.

both judaism and jew can continue without judaism judaism can continue without jews.
The jews of today are largely not of the alleged 'faith' in their creed yet are nonetheless members of New Jewish community and are self-organizing on the basis of their biological and have no need of judaism as a religious creed - rather it is simply at least covers the biological affiliation that is the remainder of the religion based upon an acceptance or superficial ^{self} identification as a member of the Jewish community. This to have out this practice more than mere theory or words is acted out and perpetuated in a wordless manner or with all their youth it is 'subterranean' in the ~~way~~ ^{way} of the Jew falling back on words and rhetoric as his defence and attack, an instrument of his cunning in the realization of his place against the universe, the 'gods' / judaism for a elaborate a complex of the Jewish ethos through the vehicle of the Jewish collective tribal group who are influenced in large part from their collective soul, thus the corporate practice given to the Jewish problem is to follow the advice of Miguel Serrano: 1) suppress the Jew from the world of a high population they can feed off so far as winter and/or 2) and most especially, 2) destroy their genetic conditions which serve the Jew to stand out which leads to the atrophy and degradation of their descent, 'the Jew' similar to the in John Carpenter's movie which, not having a source of vital energy by way of the monuments on the earth (physical Jew) would atrophy and cease to exist as a power and would quickly be destroyed and disassembled by whatever life force governs the realm in which these oversoul exist, like cutting off the tentacles of the octopus not through a sword but rather through a severing of its energetic food source.
Thus it is that the Jew is a vampire; because his oversoul is a vampire and he is merely the incarnation of that oversoul on the earth as a particular individual instance of that entity which materializes as means of carrying to feed itself descending into matter judaism is ^{renewed} ^{by himself} by ~~himself~~ all of Jewish priests and Jewishness in general the Jew creates judaism and is in turn created by judaism - however both are from the oversoul the magical as Spengler called it. Jews are by nature vampires and in order for a Jew to cease to be a vampire he must cease to be a Jew, he must voluntarily or involuntarily be either banished from the material in which he plays a merely parasitical role or he must submit or be subject to an erasure of his genetic soul a reminder so to speak or a renunciation of his genetic soul that his genetic this spiritual life are severed from the zoh octopus, from yHVH which is both below and above himself. He must in short quit the game of universes of which he has played through his history on the earth the way or the other - either voluntarily or through coerced means, reasonable force being applied to put a stop to his vampiric existence. Reasonable force of course adjusted or calibrated with the degree of harm for past and harm that has been visited upon nations and for which he can be implicated as causal agent receiving his just reward for his violation of the law of existence.

The pragmatic function of Judaism: Judaism as a social and moral discipline. "A solution to the Jewish problem", functioned pragmatically as a reinforcement of the Jewish type - it is neither a necessary nor a sufficient cause of Jewishness at any dimension of biological material or above the material plane. It is a crystallization of the collective consciousness of Jewish unity that manifests itself through the mind and mores and perceptions of the rabbis, those who represent the highest level of the imposed or mixed Jewishness controlled far above by dark energy matter entities. Judaism with its parallel laws of group interbreeds and exodus of outsiders (the non-Jews who the Jewish community deems inadequate or of no utility to themselves to exploit), the need that establishes a firm foundation for Jewishness as a genetic-demographic type. However it is not necessary to form this type or even reinforce it as the overall of Jewish unity through the particular consciousness of its lower level representatives and rather itself through exactly its influence on the individual and collective group rather like a magnet of ball in the individual case, the individual making a decision of whether to interbreed or no with another based upon the individual's undigested 'yes' or 'no', attracted or repelled of the collective consciousness, although the overall which is 'pleasing to God' in the understanding of the Jew; that is what relates with their collective consciousness overall and is agreeable to 'Israel' or 'to those living with God'. Those who are not with the Jewish God, who are themselves.

Thus Judaism is not needed it is merely a particularization and codification of that particularization of the will of the Jew or claim of the Jew which attract or repels them toward ^{any given} whatever energetically feed since that is perceived altogether by the Jew and that the individual and the higher entities within them decide it is a prudent target to vampire for whatever advantage, always in the end reducing to energy that is consumed vampirically by that overall YHWH. / Judaism through the bond that binds the Jew on the physical plane to their other side like an exercise of the tentacles of a octopus that enables it to continue to efficiently move and feed in its environment. Without Judaism or to exist the Jew would simply form another Judaism only adjusted for the current conditions - a crystallization of the sum total of the collective experiences of Jew on the earth channelled through their leadership. These must purely inspire those most Jewish in their genetic-demographic nature. Thus Judaism is merely an expression of the collective consciousness of their overall YHWH and its ^{being} transmitted or crystallized in words and concepts - such as the clothing of Jew (garments of holiness) and its relationship to the planet earth, etc. The pragmatic function of Judaism is to strengthen Jewishness and for God which is their overall; to eliminate Judaism must weaken Jewishness and by extension their overall but it will not be adequate to eliminate it. As stated in the voice "Judaism, not Jews or Judaism: a solution to the Jewish problem" only the segregation of Jews and/or the intermingling of Jew with non-Jews Halakic Law will ^{destroy} the massive energy of YHWH, the vampire who controls the world.

Fiat productio Peract Homo When the Jew commands production at all cost he knows about the deterioration of man, precipitates the death of the higher faculties for the culture of the true self of man. Such of course is his intention as to erode and erase the higher type & to bring about the destruction of his competitors for power and, like the witch in Snow White and the 7 dwarves she seeks to smother their names which remind her of her exaggerated ugliness that beg the highest pinnacle of so-called humanity on earth, the Aryan. The economy the Jew manipulates as a mechanism of power appears to the punkinoid masses as a free market or at least an oligopoly of ^{factories} ~~cooperation~~ which seek power and advantage in the form of money. This of course is only another greenroom field before the broad masses as a blind to their own power over the injustice to which they are subject, which of course plays into the hands of the Jew in deflecting hostility away from himself and towards the ruler for power. The creative Aryan in the private sector, he also has the capacity to oppose the Jew by virtue of his intellect and strength of will being an enterprising and strong individual, strong enough to have achieved at least something in this world of chaos. However, for that very reason it follows that the masses that the baggage of the private sector would in part if not in whole be a corrupt individual as he made his way ~~so to say~~ within the Jewish occupational government and thus was able to make his way thru the barriers established by the Jew to restrict access to the system and deny his voice. This it follows from the premises that these agents of private sector individuals especially those at higher levels are almost certainly under the thumb of the Jew and on that basis are capstons due to a ^{considerable} manageable degree by the Jew. Nevertheless there are some who are not or not to a sufficient degree to assuage the paranoid fear of the Jew that they will not rebel or oppose the Jew and often despite plans for global revolt that they represent the greatest threat to the Jew as the latter understands that they are motivated largely if not exclusively by self-interest and once they cease to be able to draw water from the well because the Jew has poisoned the well they will be able to mobilize their resources against him and threaten his position. Thus the private sector Aryan in the wild card the Jew fears most as they are the are able to threaten his power thru funding private military contractors under their own control and or thru greatly alternative ~~expansion~~ ^{expansion} of equipment based upon barter to enable a wider independence from the IOG ~~from~~ ^{from} the Jewish occupational government. / The other positive moment of the private enterprise Aryan in its relation to white survival at this point is the race war. Ordinarily the value of a private sector is related to the needs of the population and not an end in itself when it is an economy based upon a traditional society not an economy based upon a demographic form or the collapse of the (dawn of the economy) — production for the sake of production, the economy becoming an end in itself — the reflective society ^{the economy} thereby partitioned and in the place of a traditional society or rather no society is formed as the Aryan man who is a ^{co-}creator and ^{theory} creator of a reflective society partner Aryan has reduced to a mere mechanic, a worker whose function

Objective or objectifiable - The J.O.G. best agents pretend to objectivity, to give neutrality in their actions of the white population information completely worked out to the Jew. There also exists the real needs of the Negro people who don't compromise and can't be bought by all of the drippiest beggars that it afraid of the idea to do so, take away from oneself regardless of how loyal to it one was and regards of how dogmatic one was to their own kind. The reward for saving the Jew is death with the hot sun on the bag term - There is no neutrality possible when it comes to dealing with an enemy people or against them. If it needed a fight or a against - to fight to be for one's own kind is to be against one's own kind - to don't be for all is to be for none - to live for oneself is to die by oneself. The notion of objectivity is a mere act of cowardice, like a dog sniffing its head under a couch as its master raises its arm to beat its person which is hanging out the front. Thus the agents of the system in their unfulfilled belief they will be 'safe' from the system which should they demonstrate a willingness to support or assist their own and a standing willingness to scrape before the other but are deluded as there is no means to side with the enemy and expect any future security they will all be taken down when the system deems it necessary to take them down, to de-claw and disarm them hired guns to sever power and to prematurely fire them once loyal henchmen. Indeed it is a there part to involve oneself with again - the inevitable end result is the backstab - such is the nature of any involvement with the Jew, such is the nature of the Jew to backstab out of fear of his own weakness and cowardice as in the case of the Jew of the system and the dog where the glibble dog betrays in his weakness that the system's promise not to let him will be upheld as he carries him on his back over the river. Inevitably they both come to the bottom of the waters and drown. This is the result of 'objectivity' - to create machines that neither does nor by nature have to that other, another example of this is provided and foolishness is the treatment of niggers as white knowing that the present lowest violence between the two is radically different that neither are inherently lacking in self control not being governed by any higher principle of conscience and spirituality, as Brahms of mind. The result is to suffer the consequences of repetitive violence against oneself as counter do do and mind have learned the hard way. The promise of the Jew is the promise of a brain and for the Negro with any contact with the Jew (as with the J.O.G. - Jewish owned and controlled) is to enter into a false pact, making a deal with the devil and get buried with it. The necessary support of one's life is not one's own personal willpower and spirit set alone that is merely a part of the condition of his bag. He very well and must he has as a result of having been born into a society which, because its members supported him, members of his own race, has enabled him to acquire these skills and needed to exist with the Jew to be 'objective' and 'neutral' in relation to the survival of his own racial collective is to bring about his own destruction if not now, then later the bag term. However even to the enemy the Jew's capable gun will be rewarded with temporary benefits he will bring about also in the end. However egoistical the individual may be he had best realize that in order to save his own wretched life he had best ^{for his own race} ^{to save the biggest part off} be the best commodity

Merchant Trash: The bourgeois class is that which has represented the servitude of the labor to race. The aristocracy of old concerned itself with its own people despite its savagery or it represented its people - it was the head and face of the body of its people and denied its identity in being the leader of the prime motive of the body of its racial collective group. If seen through atrophy, then decadence largely introduced by the Jew who understood its weakness. Then his diabolical cunning, then a failure to seek out and meet challenges sign without and then the inner subordination of the class of self-interested traders whose self concern lay in commerce and the accumulation of value. This latter class, who he understood as the 'merchant trash' brought about the acceleration of civilizational collapse through their self-seeking egoistic title for the collective of which they were members and having no thought for anything other than profit which was their basis of their life being a mere trader or commercial agent, devotee of money. Hence the loyalty of the merchant trash is to themselves alone, is nonexistent and thus they have no qualms about selling their jobs, attitudes is blinder over their own people so long as the bottom line of their commercial venture that is the basis of their life is achieved. Hence the ravages the lives of their own people through them into the streets and replacing them with kind world savagery as means of acquiring more loot for themselves. This group whose life was around accumulation of goods and the ability to procure resources and to control others through buying them largely, later to recognize the essential nature of this: that value is not material and that monetary value is merely ^{acquired} and related to material things and processes (the procurement of goods, labor or debtors). The financing of a building project or a charity granting kind world stakeholder free advantage at the expense of quality or ~~extension~~ ^{extension} value (especially disaster). Real value lies in human dignity and these dimensions are restricted to that which has only a illusory apparent value, namely the value of money, value based upon exchange alone and not based upon anything essential intrinsic of the thing itself (doing or being). Even though in the mind of the merchant class this becomes justified and they become justified in their mind, become mentally and spiritually poor as all value ~~is~~ ^{is} ~~only~~ ^{only} ~~relatively~~ ^{relatively} not absolutely ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ relation to their themselves, in relation to the collective which confers value upon things. The exchange based relations which determine value are based upon elements themselves merely of relative value and thus reduced in essence whose essence is swept aside or rather overlaid with the imposition of this system of relativity concealing the essence of things. For the merchant trash of the merchant class life exists merely as an agent of this system of relativity: an economically based system of exchange with each member of that system being limited not just to a commodity and mutually a trader of commodities be their goods / and for services. The individual has both a producer and a consumer. The merchant class define themselves on the basis of possession and as possessive individuals - They live to possess and are accordingly possessed by the demon of the economy who hounds them and reduces them to the level of a mere mule in the system who is coerced to produce day after day without limit in order to uphold their class being in the market to be what they are as producer-consumer producers of course. This is not to say the merchant class are entirely blameless as they do not make a choice in the matter being caught up by the demon of the economy and forced to continue to consume in order to uphold their class identity which is that of a capitalist for production both in terms of quality and quantity. Of course they are not entirely exempt from blame either and are for the most part blameless for their insistence upon perpetuating their selfish greed and chasing after their momentary amusement and indulgence as the end goal of life. Thus the role of the merchant class is one of absurdity, of a meaningless paper chase, its sole meaning that can be called meaningful is not a deep purpose but in any sense save that of a day to day sense - that of the pursuit of freedom. Thus, the rotten root of their labour that brings the product at once of a distorted economy - pleasure over pain. Thus in the case of many of the more devout buyers of their class they equate the job and get off in self-absorption as the drop of white gold and etc. serve as a testament to giving them a dopamine spike of pleasure. Thus agreeing with popular and white values. Thus hedonism is the inevitable outcome of the merchant class's pursuit of accumulation of filthy lucre and in the same way they chase after and what they attempt to do with the terms 'peace', 'love', 'unity', 'equality', 'humanity'. The standard one simply is that serve as the core of the realm of their humanistic radical creed of well-being, of harmony. / This is not to say that those who call themselves churchmen (whether laymen or no - always hypocritically & no churchmen can follow the teachings of the alleged 'christ' and still live) are also devoted to their earthly desires, manner as to those who have not the faith and the light but rather the gleam of gold and the intoxication of the rhetoric of Zion which shows their cardinal pursuit of the faith of their labour upon the aforementioned pretense of 'humanity', 'equality', 'peace', 'love', etc. / This can be seen that the merchant class are indeed merchant class and that they are truly 'set for the pot' in the sense that they have forsaken a true spiritual path of an eternal tradition (which was never for worldly goals chosen) and adopted the religion of gold and the worship of 'human' and in the case of the church the Jewish god man fiction as their pseudo spirituality. The merchant class hang their mind polluted with fanaticism, both the abstractedness of money and of the stock exchange are a reflection of the pollution of their mind with the abstraction of 'god' and 'love', etc. which are merely words that have become ideological influence falsely associated with the happy fantasies and desires they have been surrounded with their idealized conditions by years.

The merchant class make their exploit more manifest against than against the proletariat. The proletariat as a means of neutralizing any opposition to their growing wealth & in this their massive ledger is extended by the year in which some 6000 called the empire of the bourgeoisie "which is the liberal - democratic - communist - most order that controls the world through the central bank and through the world market. The merchant class are merchant class as they view a world of organic life as merely a large bazaar or field of crops or real estate with attached mineral rights that can be bought and sold to feed the demand of the economy which is the the gods of the world and which god is Jewish to the core of the being in essence. The world of organic life and which comprises the body of Gandhi of Gethse. The earth mother is desecrated by the earth ring - vulgar who exploit the strength of commerce to convert real existence into abstract - numbers on a paper, on a television screen or on a computer screen. The oppressed of the Jew call gods and the freemason call 'Goths' or the profane are equally abused in their native reduced to the level of a mere cog in the JOC (Jewish Communist Organization). The struggle lies in the fact that all being denied their existence from the Jew are for slaves and that all are forced to spend their life force in commercial activity selling themselves as commodities in the so called labor market as commodities growing of Jan bag, or any of course that anyone will purchase their goods or services, feeling that they become a complete commodity that is cast into the garbage like the rest of the merchant class regardless of position in life, all are forced to work as slaves. Nearly fortunate for who can as of the time of the writing escape their wheel of doom which grinds them under its weight as the welfare bums, drug addicts and Black exchange gamblers who amuse themselves at the expense of the poor and the so-called respectable middle class alike who are the backbone of society and its continued future. The gulf between the two wheels of the bourgeois merchant class separates in both government and the private sector and the proletarian welfare bum class who are the greatest and most hated middle class who are hated for their role in the JOC as it controls the greatest threat to the power of the hidden hand bag intelligentsia to understand what is going on and ^{in the middle} ~~in the middle~~ enough to avoid being absorbed in the bourgeois class with its unhealthy mind that is thought of as either as marxist or capitalist. The upper class parasite class being its power in money and the defense of 'humanity', etc. as means of taking out its capitalist power the middle class poor the greatest threat to the survival of the white race bag as for it is an unhealthy mind, judgment - sense and hypocritical message. The merchant class need to be thrown into the trash as candidates of the world's small corner of those irredeemable and who are willing to serve their race ^{liberty} ~~liberty~~ ^{native} ~~native~~ preferably over and above their self serving greed as has historically been their nature.

Shut in silk feeding. The hypocrisy of the merchant class extends to their dealings with hell and ruddy even to the depths of their mind. They are a peculiar group of self-deceivers whose thought process is governed by self-interest, ready to the ultimate motivation of a maximization of pleasure and a minimization of pain - "Masters get too off". They have no regard for their own kind and get off on attacking their own race as this, in the Jewish occupation, government, religion, caste, title, popular position to adopt namely that of the anti-state. To be an ultimate capitalist, social capital is that to demonstrate great enterpriser is to accumulate the coin of the realm of the JDE system and to instill order and order at the ^{expense} of others, at the expense of their own collective life as needed to suffer the consequences of their actions and so. The merchant class desire to throw the freeman of the free race into the trash and replace them with the trash can. The first school in the world already classed pathological factors the class has separated in the vagaries of indifference, demeritocracy against white identity and promoting the identity of non-white both explicitly and implicitly. With the facilitation of the state's opposite grade of replacement of white in employment and in the order of power merely because they are divisions. The merchant class are shut in silk feeding who seen the debilitation their race a mechanism of the accumulation of filthy lucre both indirectly in the form of legal capital and directly in the form of the first currency which pours into their pockets. With the market invaded by whatever route (cheap labor; subsidies up theft from the tax payer; laws by government). The merchant class has spent the last century doing the catholic how most records from having blown back so far into. These members of the bourgeoisie who have not become completely decadent and rotten to the core most had against the white genocide agenda both in word and in deed (in the use of their money and power) else they will end up with their head in a basket by the agency of whatever opposition group (communists; radicals; Jewish, etc.). The real movement for the future is in the white race as a collective and saving that ^{the} bankruptcy of order existence and the shallow mass grave.

Holodomor Repatriation

The perpetual theme of the Jews over the holocaust seems to mark the atrocities against others they have orchestrated throughout the ~~century~~ of their history on their earth at all times and places without ~~intention~~. It serves as a dominant factor to clean the white population of those who actually have regard for other sentient life (than themselves) and a brainwashing mechanism to enable them to escape punishment for the actual atrocities they have financed and planned at from their concealment to the real world of the conception. Examples abound throughout history the tapestry of history has been stained with blood and gone but in recent centuries the French revolution, the world wars, the holocaust ^{genocide} revolution etc. all culminating in mass murder and genocide, the major mystery of a distinct biological group based upon its ethnicity targeted specifically for this purpose: the Ukrainians against the holodomor, the latter amounts to approximately 15.5 million deliberately ~~driven to~~ death ~~and~~ ^{perpetrated} by the red czar. To all of these facts and statistics not to mention the actual suffering that had been undergone by the people themselves the Jews then forgot their double bluff of the holocaust designed to trip up any claimant to suffering and especially at their hand. The Jew claims a monopoly on suffering as a mechanism of censorship - of concealing their history of criminality behind the facade of victimhood of doing justice to the victims of the greatest crime of history when in reality it is the greatest hoax of history next only to communism and universal egalitarianism. Religious Jews have constructed as a mechanism of hypocrisy the cult of the creators of civilization, the white race. / The narrative has picked up their coming downwater of the behavior of the white man the minor manuscript of other works given his behavior, his regard for universal order (not universalism) and thus have crafted on him in ^{most} cases crafted for them by their hands the Jew various holy books / fables of victimhood they do can utilize as a rhetorical weapon to justify their thievery from white backed up of course with a wealth of evidence enabled by the Jewish oligarchy who control the print and political. Again false parallels made in the image of the Jew and projected onto the white man as the villain of the narrative also, according to the universal-egalitarian morality that Jews have invented the ~~and~~ of white man, the white man must atone for his 'sins' or the 'sins of his fathers' which are 'largely affirmed to ~~exist~~ 2) affirmed to have some relationship to himself and 3) affirmed to obstruct him to discharge (him has diverted of all earthly and other of his capital funds (land, money, employment, etc.). The fallacy of these claims can only be dispensed through the ~~subject~~ of evidence that anyone with an IQ above room temperature can understand that all of that which ~~negatives~~ ^{negatives} and Jews have has denied the creative capacity of the white man, his creative genius and the political system of egalitarian ideology and its influence upon his economic system and intellectual behavior (communism and liberalism beg the man all sorts along with various -jingoism and the selfish greed of the bourgeoisie) which has put him into a mental stupor of intellectual and beat him to the ~~point~~ ^{point} of the useless idiot of free loaders and paganism. The distance of actual history regards far from the indulgence of men white and the villainy of white men, rather the opposite namely the villainy of the young white savages who have murdered and genocided and mixed with white in many areas of the earth or as in the case of the jews opened the gates to the foreigners and set them up for slaughter. The wrong of history it such there be at all (Reality has no moral but merely the mirage of cause and effect) in the white man and the villains the savages. But this all according to the same game morality of the jew who feels an innate sense of entitlement none of them own weakness and inability to endure the hardships of life without a perpetual 'ay vex' expression of their pain than 'world pain' as the words of Heidegger. Nevertheless these must submit to harassment, exploitation and violence have been the white who perhaps to some extent owing to their selfish greed and perhaps to a desire not to harm others without any justification (a sense of a disrupted order if such it may be called) or without any willingness to cause harm to another white who wanted (unless that other may cause harm to them in its relationship to them and there being no other way to deal with them).

Thus the perpetual white of the savages and the savage master is subspecies a detour (from the path of virtue or ethics) edited by the capriciously greater sufferer of the white man who has suffered the brunt of violence directed against him even as he desires the lush and settled who content with his own tribal barman and estate Thing civilization built to last millennia or the dense rain which regulates the globe for as a testament to. He of course had no willingness like the jew to look back over his shoulder into the past and hold a grudge long for a purely negative purpose for spite and opposition to those who outran him and who he looked upon as being him for whatever perceived injustice he had endured in some forgotten past. The cynicism of the white man was never so bulky that it would descend into the depths of jealousy and resentment but else make an entire religion out of it (the jew falling back on Victorian narrative as means of mistaking his ego. The white man rather transcends the primitive sadism of 'Harmers' and 'revenge' as he is beyond such coarse rights. At most it is a matter of punishing the innocence himself ^{for the sake of the} and this leads to acts of retaliation for injustice visited upon him - ~~else~~ ^{else} he passes on and ignores the enemy. His Achilles heel however, when dealing with enemies whose entire value system is based upon resentment lies in his inability to comprehend this mindset of revengeful narrative especially the jew as his motto is always to not justice upon an enemy and make or not forgive and forget as would a christian but ~~reluctantly~~ not the ~~villainy~~ unrelenting spitefulness of the jew. According to cosmic order to universal justice, the justice of ^{divine} ~~human~~ law, the white man would be the who is entitled to receive the fruits of the labour of others, or even their wholesale slaughter given their violation upon him of the order that Jew. The savages have perpetrated with malice alone trust.

He is thus entitled to his holodomer reparations and then some, with interest, the owner of the Jew especially. These compounded their natural enmity against the white race in their perpetration of genocide in countless areas of the earth previously where others have lived (Congo the Congo desert, the forest; the Atlantic; the Amazon; and spanning the entire globe).

The negroes globally have delegatized the leaders of the white men and subjected them to be genocided with rape and murder and have become the resultant product of that evil union, that violation of divine law borne of the greed of the average for food and body (flesh pleasure and the gleam of gold). Their holodomer reparations are inadequate to ever compensate the white men for all of the atrocities he has been subjected to. Their demands for necessary a rectification of the balance of justice with white men impose the justice in the form of a tribunal. As Helena Blavatsky said with regard to the negro and the redskin rampants in "The secret doctrine" their evolution is a hand necessity and thus sought their harm visited upon white. Most the militant, he of course, being an agent of the Rothschild Jewish bankers, forget to mention the Kingdom of Heaven which we fear double the rate of justice as a common leaden cube that never be melted down and cast into the face of the walked witcher of evil.

Freemasonry: a bourgeois creed. The creptious greed of Freemasonry, combined by the Jew and imposed upon the white race is what at the current time in the cycle of time enslave the world like the beast of revelation with the scented abman, the where of baphia being the Jew. Of course this is merely a chaotic conception doing itself from the Jew and the man is that the alleged intricate Freemasonry is merely evasive Christianity, holiness, Luciferian & may be inference (itself a purely distorted concept). The nature of Freemasonry differs from Christianity only in form of its epistemology and in form of the degree of ~~its~~ ^{its} ~~its~~ ^{its} which the Jew uses it to enslave at a deeper level the man. The difference between on the one hand with Christianity mere 'belief' in that which has no proven reality and the false ~~idea~~ ^{reality} of greater order, meaning, which purports to be knowledge which is in reality illusion, the speech of the Jew. I am advanced a rationalistic and watered down of concepts, ideas and ideals that bind me to the Jew as his slave and to the dark energy matter ~~entity~~ ^{entity} (perhaps the dark energy matter ~~entity~~ ^{entity}). The Jew is bound up with. That Freemasonry is a bourgeois creed can be seen in its venerations of masonry or Hermetism, the messenger god who is the symbolical representation of intellect, of reason and rationalism and demands that I myself from the Le called French encyclopedists in the enlightenment at least in its current, distorted and warped form which is pushed over and above all else defining the intellect as 'god'. The bourgeois caste has always been since the beginning with the various in Indian and before) a calculating group who employ the intellect or the mediation or wisdom of their commercial activity as a means of acquiring power as ~~power~~ ^{power} individuals, rational agents who are bent on self seeking advantage. This befitting

Free masonry approximate with its claim to elitism the individual 'High' the dark naturalism which some as ~~the~~^{the heart of it} greed. Masonry creates race hatreds in that it is not willing to acknowledge anything other than the 'holiness' of man ~~but rather~~^{and the} the distinct quality of rank which is as today frayed at the end by the self proclaimed 'good' of the lodge who are bound up in their own ego and have often ~~not~~^{not} have a willingness ^{or ability} to go beyond lower ego concerns save with fan club deviant pathological alchemy which extend itself indiscriminately to all and sundry and which has largely paved the way for the white genocide agenda. The intolerance of masonry towards the rank the self-seekers who either have no healthy outlet to begin with or who have what healthy outlet they have High them being spiritually bound to the gear and that entire which govern them from above. Thus the creator of the hobnob guy is achieved that Freemasonic initiate. The name "oath force" from 1973 perfectly illustrates the process and the book "Destruction of Freemasonry High revelation of its secrets" by General Eric W. Laidlaw put the nail in its vampire coffin, when asked if you want to be a member remember the phrase "Caveat emptor". (put Bunker's initiation custom here).

Racist classism: Neither raceless classism nor classless racism is the intention of the writer in his presentation of a world that would foster the higher type and enable the upliftment of all. Thus the higher type being able to develop itself without the undue influence of the lower which seeks to drag it down at a mean of elevating itself, out of its own jealousy, hatred of the higher type, seeks to smother the vision which reveals it of its comparative inferiority. To foster the higher type - what does this mean? It means to not impede its excellence, its creative will. It means to not attempt (per impossible) to transform it into a mere servant of the servant as it is hypocritically doing the case among the bourgeoisie but rather to allow it to have free reign to what it must, namely to play the role of a creator, to create a world that it can be called a spiritual world and a higher culture that aspires to ascend toward the heights and not one which dreads toward the depths. Such as the inevitable deterioration of a 'liberal democratic' regime which inevitably transforms into a socialist regime which inevitably transforms into a communist regime with the subordination of all essential functions under the thumb of the party. / For the higher seeks to aspire to the heights the higher type must preserve itself and it can only do so when it rules over the rest as the rest is merely the scaffold upon which the Creator of the genus of the higher type rests - to attempt to elevate the foundation to the level of the spine, of the height of the structure is to collapse the structure into rubble and descend inevitably into a chaos of dust out of which no phoenix will ever rise. Hence the necessity of a caste hierarchy should the heights ever be attainable. This caste, the capsule in the pyramid of the human race as a tangible organism (body, soul and spirit), must serve as the ordering and animating principle which organizes all beneath itself not to serve itself but so that it may serve the whole as a cohesive state form. The hands, the bowmen of proletarians, represent largely the body, the middle class the soul and the spirit embodies itself in the bourgeoisie who safeguard and enlarge the continuance of the whole organism as its motive principle, the prime motive of its existence. / This is racist classism wherein every part plays its proper role. However it is a classism which as the writer would require, based upon a faculty of essence such that those talents at the top form who have elevated themselves or been born into it who call themselves high under whatever to atrophy or become decadent and subject to being torn down by those peers or those of lower rank and to be disposed of fitting their rank and their requiring demolition or, depending on their quality, to obstruct or even excise. Should they fail to uphold the standard appropriate for their caste or will of their degrading their position. Those at lower ranks who have an inadequate thorough and comprehensive of the requisite merit, rise to a higher level either within that particular territory or as a colony in another territory - whatever their own personal desires demand what would not possibly be hampered by any rigidities of caste or in the case of today's Jewish capitalist Jewry / Freemasonry slave master which is an advantage system that renders ineffectual all of the categories for power who are either born into privilege, are a privileged majority who receives undue advantage based upon ^{their} hereditary biological quality or as a Jew preferentially. All others need not apply and thus, has shut out of any possibility for advancement and the realization of their capacity, the perfection of themselves, they rather stagnate and display themselves as cold, selfish substance, living purely for themselves else they wrangle with hostility and feud. The competition also became unpolished and corrupted the more means for power. They could have been themselves had they ever had a chance to demonstrate their natural talent and capacity which could have developed the society in an upward direction rather than tearing it down into the sewer of leveling equality with the Arabians, gypsies and their Jewish masters. And so other than belated their hidden groups. Thus a classism of race that enables the sustainable development of that biological fraction collective, will be structured along a fluidic hierarchy where no element or category is in place without having the merit to be there. Thus the state will be required in an essential way, something which evolves itself out of itself in a coherent way such that no element jars with any of the others and all are harmoniously changed in relation with one another in a differentiated order that seeks its perfection itself and as a unit not as with the state of today dissolve. Thus during the decline of a preference of unity with demands incompatible with the organism and thus an organism which is subject and susceptible to carcinoma and minor decay and ultimate extinction. Thus, in order for a society to thrive it must be a dynamic system that holds its together. Thus, itself in opposition to itself and without (the different competitive biological groups called 'human' in today's parlance chloro-pedal biological entities) who seek to steal its substance and/or mix with it, stealing its genetic, its solid substance for itself vanishing. Call ourselves carrying that type of energy (Jew).

A racialist classism has what is today called the 'best set' and below that the bourgeois caste is what rules over the world with the United Nations. This group is akin to what the Jews intend to form, that has them (spread Israel) which is the central chamber of genetic quality that resembles the international moral state they intend to establish. The bulk of their genetic state caste, reminiscent of the material plan, the 'Lebanon' people who is an entity that embeds chaos within itself, entropy, mind dissolution, made in the image of the Jew. The upper caste which has come to its demise that their inward and competition over their Jews has corrupted, dismantled, spiritually (can not better say 'dismantled') into a 'product' Jew. Thus Freemasonry has no loyalty to its own kind or recognition of any bond of blood. These birds have been served by the Jew with the individual process and with the bourgeois set setting the foundation of the paucity of the mode of being that could also be devised as Jewish;

Mors Triumphalis When one is in the crucifixion of the Jewish controlled government it becomes simply a matter of time for his physical presence on this earth to ^{leave or there} ~~have achieved its~~ ^{relieve} the possibility of perpetuating his life. He is living on borrowed time with the downward clock ticking down and the oncoming of the super-geese setting open his form spinning him along down the earth. The super of the go (his virginal unknown figure, occult quality) is like the eye of Sauron in Tolkien's "The Lord of the Rings". This 'Super' referred to here is a Suedoche metaphorical figure, for the pervasive influence of the Jewish capitalist government a network of spies and violently aggressive, cold & calculating psychopaths and various other puppets of them they use as their instruments of entering control. The super is a very real, very physical, actual being as well as manifesting in the form of countless other guises of very real, physical actual beings, eg. Ambassadors - police; the exposed Jewish community and various mind slaves they have converted with manifest intention - all of whom are rather to the core of their being on a spiritual level being dramatically possessed and/or influenced by dark energy matter entities. The Jews are bound up with (the center cannot with any certainty say that he is aware of their particular form or value save that they exist at a different dimension and can at times be perceived wrongly on the periphery of an or which is identical black holes which sit about and which appear upon the more scientific and aware than aggressive and negative vampire presence. It is assumed by the center that these entities are they whom the Jews are either mixed with possessed and/or enslaved by and are influenced by or physical manifestations on the earth coming at the will of this aggressive collective of beings who the center will call the "depression" in the form of spiritual (emano). / When one is caught in the gaze of Sauron he has little recourse; if he attacks we will be set down with rapid and efficient force. Should he seek to escape the eye with simply follow him and capture him within his gaze. Thus there appears no recourse but to strike out as effectively and as efficiently as possible against the entity and its minions - which is always to target with the most efficient and effective use of the maximum of this center's control should one not have the knowledge/power to strike at the eye of Sauron itself.
Thus one must face the eye and prepare to die - to go out in a triumphal death (Mors Triumphalis) against the foe. The categories of traitors to the ultra race regardless as outlined in Louis Beggs "Escape of a Warman" and under Brooks's "Manifesto (3 part)" are outside earth targets so receive their just karma. Once the decision is made to act against of a certainty it will simply be a matter of time before one is caught and must combat the mind of Sauron. The police and military forces who are recruited and subject to mind control by the dark forces as means of enforcing their programs. From that point it is either suicide by cops or the probability of torture, prison and execution in the dungeons of Baradur. The only alternative is to die the coward's death and die at a higher dimension than selling out to the Dark Lord. Better to die with physical but live in the mind or, it might be possible regard in the mundane plane of the damage could even be as the capacity to have a conscious awareness or reality of a superlative nature while white race being a more developed, intelligent. Thus the (whites) who caused is compelled more fully than those of a more rudimentary caste who are not as able to self govern and free themselves from the damaging influences such as in the case of the Jew and their mind slaves the gentiles. This it follows from the premise that who ever came under the influence of the dark land they are a more powerful instrument of that evil and thus are the foremost enemy of the white race. These traitors go beyond animal' instincts) white race traitor are they also have the greatest capacity to harm their own kind as they, deceiving their own people into thinking they are their protectors and absolute leaders, merely undermine and work harm upon their own kind and thus to a greater degree internally and up to the present moment through the blood lusts and the trust which naturally follows from that accelerated action which they violate highly influenced by the damage and consciously choosing to spark and carry out the murders of their damaged brethren treacherous nature. They the white race traitors are the most significant enemy of the white race. The subjects of the category of every one - children; liberals; madmen who appear; and any who have cowardly and/or willfully for the sake of self interest and for their few senseless dark land, isolated their own people working harm upon them. The punishment should meet the crime: having a magnitude over their own people; enslaving their own people or complicity out ^{under} ^{element} than in the capacity of a police officer or military man; doing their own people accommodates ^(rats) or the receipt of benefits if needed (welfare; criminal services); inflicting against them for the state or not protecting them from the state; treating them in a derogatory fashion based upon socio-economic class; mistreating themselves in business or relationships of any kind with non-white enemies or fellow race traitors over their own kind who are not race traitors when the ^{reasonable} ^{possibility} exists however difficult of realization to do otherwise; in general behaving toward their race and not actually serve their race when it is possible to do so amounts to categorization as a race traitor.

Depending on the severity of the offence the magn of pain can be removed or diminished. That act of atonement for this regression of sin - both qualitative and quantitative factors apply in it has worked away - having involved oneself in race many years before would not be a sin that we should have to atone for when they have conspired for their own race (at least its male) but having set up a fellow white to be improved or died would necessarily appropriate harsh measures. The punishment fitting the crime is that the do of justice balance equilibrium / so the other categories of racial crimes of white, Jew and non white savages. The punishments would also be correspondent with the crime and ^{would} always be meted out with the purpose of setting a precedent so that the racial enemies of white ensure not to repeat this act violating white races.

scholar, experienced and accomplished. The physical instruments of the damage must be dealt with so that they do not threaten the 14 words "we, ---" and the means to ensure that is achieved in the 23 words "what, ---". The golden rule of creativity and the early morality a Creator, a white person, living as a white life, adheres to. These physical aspects also are capable of fighting the damage on the higher plane, mind and will do so as they feel the call of the blood and respond to it. The appropriate, effective interpretation of force against the dark has already been shown. The physical instruments of this damage are as spectacles of a scope to look from the body ^{eyes} ^{eyes} the growth of more, holiness, it will know the body and the central organ the head for which the eye of reason looks out with materialance upon its fear seeking to feed vainly from the soul energy of those who it govern and can reach. Its only threat on this earth is the white race and thus the white race must do its part to ensure its survival, expansion and advancement. This is done against the damage at all levels, physical and metaphysical by all means, physical and metaphysical. The most powerful weapon being the mind which the white race must affix to Being - to what we have called "god" - so that it may be employed effectively and fearlessly against the enemy.

"Bow Before me!" - The Jew. The guilt placed upon the shoulders of the majority by the Jewish Supremacy (that is to say the Jew as a collective group) is that which has its material counterpart in the yoke of slavery. In order to exist within the confines of the Jewish majority we must eagerly subordinate ourselves to the Jew as the latter slave, casting himself into the arms of the 'Goyim'.
Those not having a willingness to subordinate themselves to the Jew as a slave are subjected to the penalty of execution - such is the law of the Jew codified in the moral law with beheading being the end result for one of these duties (should they be ^{substantive} contemptible - but that would be an absurdity) or liable (in the near total of cases of those not willing) to convert themselves into a pathetic slave. The degradation of the Jew is an extrapolation in behavioral form of his megalomaniacal consciousness, greed and hypocrisy. Thus to associate with the Jew by adhering to his laws is to sparkle oneself in the moral massacre of the majority.
The Jew desires and to exist as a purely materialistic system of mutual betrayal for which he demands his power. His religion which is the codification of his collective experience (The Jew; Jehovah) in the form of the ritual and dogmatism and related practices serves as a testament to his megalomania, his cruelty and his mendacity. The pathetic slaves who serve the Jew have mortgaged their souls to the Jew and thus have exchanged eternity for the transience of the majority in which they have become enmeshed creating spiritual ties to the Jew. Thus transmuting their thought energy to the Jew and any gains the yoke of the master and their descent which they have allowed to expose their position and have not put up a fight against their allowing themselves to be assimilated into the collective consciousness of the Jew as the spiritual world. Whether in the secular form of leftism, a Nazism or in the Christian or Abraham or Muhammadan organized religion (Islam; Buddhism, etc.). To bow before the Jew means to subordinate oneself to the Jew thus smirking and resistance to the Jew; to resist the Jew is to wage a war out of the yoke which has been imposed upon him for birth. The survival of the majority of a fallen world for people (white) by the damage, a materialized world that demands itself through its own inner complex entanglements. Those who bow before the Jew merely precipitate the cultural degradation as they allow greater and greater chaos to exist thus relating to eliminate the chaos through rising order upon it. Thus they degrade and become a danger and ultimately destroyed agent of the chaos either passively or actively. They are a cog of their own destruction and this naturally thing that by saving the Jew they purchase life but in reality they merely precipitate their acceleration of the death spiral and are 'brought into death' as their lives materially are a mere waste and end for his power for the sake of the spare moment the Jew can them, is tantamount to his only to die. material life is their passion form being a purely finite thing. The fact that they are a part of a collective soul, or culture in the sense of James in his book 'The Varieties of Religious Experience', implies that to live for bread alone is an act of folly as it is 'as to other and doubtless to bow before the Jew for bread and material alone is to bind the debt off the feet of the Jew and to clean out one's spiritual possibilities. To save the Jew is to save oneself as death unwanted both in the physical and the spiritual Rational sacrifice as meditation at Fort New Richmond: To date, successes are temporary failure. Those who have styled themselves 'vocalists' people are successful only in 'sipping' at a drop of conviction and are their concept individuals, mostly rather to the ease of their bag, to be a 'vocalist' in the system of this society is to be a purely self-serving hypocrite whose sole concern is self and how much in the way of advantages they can accrue to themselves. Thus they are purely egocentric and beyond the self nothing exists, hence they are unconcerned with the fate of anything beyond their confined limits and fallible existence.

They, however, are lacking self understanding as the phrase 'no man is an island' echoes under 'myself' conduct. No one can live by or for themselves as they are bound up with a collective at all levels spiritual and physical and so fast to focus with the preservation of the collective not to bring about their own self destruction. Their action is solely to themselves further or perhaps only their barbarized experiences which fails to offer any sound understanding of reality - to recognize that, in Hitler's words 'what I am I can push you, what you are you are pushing me' to recognize the identity of the plurality of the collective which is individualized into myriad physical forms but which is simultaneously united in it, distinct separation and there is the so-called plastic mediator which promotes the physical separation & the same or damnation. Further individual members of the collective live purely for themselves & to become a cancer in that collective organism which creates chaos not harmony within that system. To save oneself at the expense of the collective and moreover not to give that collective is to play the role of a cancer and to bring about one's own destruction thus the chaos is created. Thus all designed ways men are differentiated one from another yet participate in the collective and have a obligation to contribute their substance in part or in whole if need be (as Hitler said) so that that entity can continue to exist and preserve itself thus the lower element contributing to it in a manner that enables its perpetuation. Thus through the perpetuation of the part of which it is not composed but which are the material of its bag and beyond that to contribute and foremost to that entity itself. The alternative for to commit suicide thus attempts absolutely for oneself at the expense of his own mind to control himself even as his collective pertains to whatever degree depends on his influence, the greater the influence he has the more harm he causes the collective and its course. Thus to ally the power, channels of the system, establish white rabbits who have in position of power or means of getting popular support and a that bank use them as an instrument of destruction of the people harming the collective most thus the wickedness of their transfer power.
The present plays its role for self interest and in becoming bound spiritually to the system becomes 'like the child of hell' that any form would ever be, corrupted and freedom and individualism are used to enslave spiritually the soul gay in the nation of their own darkness (as we properly 'demon') that is darkness.
Those who serve the system have their own goals, well-being & their bag and conditions are given of their bag.

Equality cult hierarchy : The SOG ("...") hierarchy which exists underneath the Jews as a gradation of initiation of pseudo spirituality is really a despotic influence. At the highest level are those most empowered and yet paradoxically most enslaved to the Jews and the dark entities that they have bound up with them and which impel them to carry out their sacred intergenerational plan for global domination and hegemony. The Freemasons are empowered as black magicians in service to the Jews and yet are all the more tightly bound up with them though being initiated into the mysteries of the Kabbalah. The higher the degree, the more judged the person such that they are awarded to whatever extent the biological essence (their race) can be adjusted and attuned to that of the Jews and their dark entities. They are then empowered and yet they are no longer who they are as a biological organism, a race, are instead assimilated into (or put into) the Borg hive mind of the Jew and are so to speak hijacked by the Jew who are ^{concocted} rendered into instruments of these dark forces.
Thus they have no longer an independent mind and are thus merely empowered automata whose powers are used for the sake of the order of Solomon's temple, the 2nd government of the Jew. As such they are a dehumanized bag whose creed is 'humana' in service. The fanciful darkness for magnification of the slave population. They are automata who are perhaps more conscious than the broad masses but are automata nevertheless. They are conscious of how they are utilized as tools and instruments of these dark forces and yet have allowed themselves to become enslaved to them through intimate rituals which complicit to proceed and obedient by these entities and which, at a more mundane level of bag, entail the capitulation of themselves. Thus the countless of human advocates that are captured in film and on video photograph such that, should the attempt to break free from the cult they will be framed and set up and be subjected to the operation of ^{low and false} ~~high and false~~ that will simply be done away with by whatever period of the cabal. / Freemasonry is the one high which the Jew controls the tip of the iceberg of non-Jewish nations and has acquired near total power in all non-Jewish nations globally. Freemasonry is the first exploited by the Jew and for dominant nations for the advancement and enslavement of the gentile and to convert them into a spiritual Jew and against them our people. Over time and the degree of involvement are nations false truth and a telltale byword of demagoguery. The church knows nothing and pretends it that way, having knowledge and truth in which he calls 'God's word' and centers himself with a cheap like subordination to the Jew's god Jehovah who became his de facto lord and master. The church is not controlled for truth and his energy captured by the dark entities within the church, his mind bound to the Jew though classical cardinals, monks / dominant influence whereby the dark entities exert their control over his consciousness.

At the highest level are those most empowered and yet paradoxically most enslaved to the Jew and the dark entities that they have bound up with them and which impel them to camp at their sacred intergenerational plan for global domination and hegemony. The Freemasons are empowered or black magic in service to the Jew and yet are all the more tightly bound up with them. observing him and ultimately passing him as the human battery which both they and the jaw drain of energy and use as their lower level mind and slave class. The pastor and church hierarchy leadership are all thoroughly caught within the same and control that is exerted by the Jew and their masters upon the Christian also not to "as" specific a degree as the consumer and contributor of the church is of a limited nature and his ~~sovereignty~~ ^{sovereignty} can be easily controlled through a more basic influence usually equal to an activist of his program. Thus the quotation of biblical passages and the usage of various words and phrases that catches him to act according to his Jewish master's program (patriarchy; schizophrenia to what can be called 'authority', i.e. the JWG; pathological altruism; servitude, etc.). Thus the Christian is the perfect slave as he has no conscience based in program such that he self-ventures as his program, i.e. as a Christian beyond which he has no willingness or ability to comprehend reality. His conscience has remained to the program to the extent he is a Christian and not merely a hypocritical materialist or to the extent he is not influenced by various other ideological programs such as Marxist-materialism and the vagaries of new age Jewish philosophy. The Christian is the worker of the Jew who operates at levels of some degree of responsibility in reality as the Jew knows that his loyalty is bought and paid for by the Jew. The cause of the realm of Zion the Christian's loyalty has towards external authority (rather than the Jew) such that he will never rebel but will always walk in lockstep with the Jew to the extent it remains within the limits of his program and he can remain a 'Christian'. Thus the Christian carries the 'backbone' of reality that is used to hold the burden imposed upon him by the Cabalistic upper tier hierarchy. He is the 'reactionary conservative' that is thus. This dogmatism is played off against that largely beneath it, i.e. on the socio-economic ladder namely the communist or democratic type, the program of egalitarianism in the lowest form that of pure materialism divided or over the lowest elements and pretense of solidarity which latter was intended to distract a latent pre-dominantly captured by the Jew as a slave religion based upon that of the error (cf. 'The engine of change' by Brecht & others). The communist/Marxist materialist was purely for the control of the senior apparatus, of the superstitious nervous system and his philosophy of such may be called would best be called the 'oppression', the 'philosophy of the belly' as he lives for bread and comfort alone. He is played off against the Christian in an operational distraction with the Christian being in his characteristically self-interest and self-aggrandizing for all to engage to conquer the 'worldliness' of the cause and to exalt his own prevalent state of willful method and pre-negative bag that it is a bag also to provide in false humanity of 'not drag or bag' what the 'other' the communist is, namely a headless, blind section and crude laborer who merely lives to save his belly and to 'work' without regard for any other modality of life. This latter bag is the bottom of the program of the Jew world order and represents the chaos of

The system which provides for the order of order upon all tiers of its work force, the human backbone (domestic and common). This is why it is an emergency to patterns of life after of self destruction so that it can serve as a negative example of what not to be and of the chain rule is drawn into the chamber as a result of technology - the door of the coming capitalizing the division to embrace the disposition of measures on the part of the joint in the form of police actions - 'safety and security'. The main class are conditioned measures to learn their themselves or personnel within entitled to see advantages by virtue of their comparative lack of power and power. This further justifies the operation of power and measures in a capital system with ^{the} ~~equilibrium~~ degree of the hierarchical equality cult (common sense - the upper class - we are equal to the other) to redistribute the wealth of the productive middle class of division in the name of 'equality, unity, cooperation, etc.' so that the upper class can thereby destroy the middle class and use total power to itself in a justified society of slaves and masters with only a small buffer between the two that of tradespeople who press up the infrastructure and a lower tier of bureaucracy who pull the levers of the machine at a low level 'being' controlled from above by the Jews and their material attributes with the golden rules of money, the ~~lower~~ ^{lower} tier being controlled by the main class of force and all and sundry being controlled by the demand forces and a third class of dominant influence. This is the equality cult with its hierarchical machine which points nothing outside of itself, a bag of holding which is a source of self perpetuation. However it is a fatal flaw that its source of energy is based upon the creative drive of the white race who are the makers and destroyers of all worthwhile forms of culture and are, when demographically perverted and abused and/or degenerated. In this case, the first sector attuned to the which enables them to continue to create and invent adjusting any system to Reg. This themselves. All conditions grow out of a naturally development and ending a society to preserve its dynamism and not fall into a state of entropy such as in the case of the TOG which suffers all creativity and seeks the death of its motor, the white race which leads to its organizational and ultimate destruction, the death spiral that it necessarily follows as a direct result of chaos collapsing in on itself. The equality cult, having been established as a primary foundation of lies (the principle of equality) necessarily brings upon its own destruction and is doomed to collapse under its own burgeoning weight. Thus the equality cult will perish, it is only a matter of time and a matter of preparedness to ensure we do not go down with the ship of fate. The establishment of a parallel society as a safeguard from the TOG or possible of the life preserve. The prudent ^{should} ~~seek~~ seek out and hold it not ~~out~~ of its own most comfort out of whatever rule implements. It may however, be for the hand of the Jewish-capitalist government only into the waters of dissolution.

Vox populi vox græci: That the join control the mass of information enables him to manipulate the minds of the masses and to such an extent that what is transmitted in the media becomes the content of consciousness of the non-leader population. But not merely the content the form of the consciousness of the population is created by the early craftsmen (Gaul and beamers) in the media - through the spiritual nature of the medium itself. The immediacy of the raw data transmitted, the speed of the rate of their dispersion as a presence that occludes and dissipates any independent consciousness renders the mind of the receiver of the message a construct of the message itself such that the medium itself is the message - the vibrational tone, colour, the impact transmitted through the ether by the broadcasting source all run to affect the consciousness of the population and to shape and mold it into the hive mind of the join as a breath within an ocean of silence. It is not possible to reason with the material and the presence of the material submerges reason and differentiates thought in the waters of sameness, making every the crystallization of light form that are a created product of reason and all higher forms of consciousness. This brainwashing influence through deluging the consciousness of the masses with a stuporizing flow of information ('stupidizing' - making stupid the stupid stupid drug run the Green and 'stupid' for learners of mind) renders the individual unit of the system a hypnotized zombie and through this means renders him a docile body, a phobic object who has no inner life that can assert itself as a resistance to the controlling forces. Indeed the influence of the media in the form of the conventional (t.v.; internet; magazine) and in that of the more clandestine (electronic fields) enables the mass to enter a state of heightened suggestibility and through this means are further shaped and transformed within consciousness into a state of the Kerner gap, a join approved instrument of the cabal who utilize the instrument to create their 3rd government. The process in general follows a basic process: 1) hypnotize (via the technological stream of mind control in all of them forms - religious; secular etc.); 2) program with particular content of consciousness that goes to join and that harness the join's zombie slave center. In doing the voice of the people that which the people the join's people keep conditioned to accept as true is merely an echo of the join which is itself the echo of the dark energy matter culture which controls them (by the way, the energy, emotion, transdimensional displacement of the 'mind shadows' spoken of by Carlos Castaneda are related to in the northern prophecies, etc. or both the outer or inner). Thus the masses are indeed identifiable with their programming such that they overcome individuality of exposure, cease to have any mind at all and are purely the 'join' docile cattle the join manage affairs around from socialist countries with themselves as despots, more and their slaves as winter dinner, are used only observe the behavior of children to understand the nature of a lifetime of mind control in the churches. This is reflected in the so-called secular world in the communist - democratic totalitarianist atheist world view and its new age variants which are all deemed

Choose your destiny: The law of attraction and the incarnation of the soul: In the spheres of racial doctrine "Jules" speaks of how the individual is born into certain circumstances not, as the church would have it, based upon some mysterious miraculous act of the gods (as good is) or as the new age leftists would have it as a chance choice or as a blessing or punishment of a prior incarnation but as a result of the essence of the soul, its structure or pattern of energy that (thru) the law of attraction, of electro affinity, gravitates toward certain similar conditions that accommodate its essence like a round peg fitting into a round hole. This metaphorically speaks of the choice of one's destiny. He cites the 'general principle' of as above so below to illustrate this process: that "everything that appears here is a reflection of a reality existing above" the concentration, the dematerialization of that energetic pattern into those particular conditions that anticipate its birth. Given the fragmented nature of the modern world under the influence of the cycles of time and the deteriorating consequences of misorganization the soul, though gravitating toward conditions that are most accommodating of its incarnation necessarily must take the karmic tincture of its antecedents who have brought it into being and who themselves are almost certainly a result of mixture, with the dynamic sweetness of life in physical reality. Of course there also are mixed almost certainly, if such mixture is beyond what can had 'drawn together' past mortals with not reincarnate, then soul elements simply dissipating past mortals and gravitating according to the law of attraction - That as Butler & Green said "We attract like as surely as the lodestone attracts iron" - toward whatever state or condition or tempo that their inner nature dictates according to causality. Those relatively pure and who live a degenerate life dissipating their life force through hedonistic disorders and a destabilization of themselves from their centre (True self) fails to integrate all of the aspects of the soul into themselves with almost certainly, suffer a similar fate - hence the term 'dissipation' in contrast to integration of these elements of their essence. The man of race - he who has preserved the blood memory and who has not denied it though a life mounted to himself and who has not become degenerated but who has led a life of a ^{native} ~~man~~ ^{man} or well as building and developing himself - strengthening the self - will have the greatest possibility of either attaining immortality past mortal in the physical or will probably reincarnate as a distinct entity preserving to the greatest extent possible his identity. When all of aspects of his soul are properly integrated and he has attained a powerful capacity to ^{incarnate} ~~draw~~ ^{draw} and maintain hold of these elements so that they become just and most of that which is antecedent to his being its cause and he will have a soul sufficiently powerful to ascend or reascend the ladder to the dissolution of the soul in the waters of samara - The past temporal matrix of the damage in which he is trapped and which he has become bound to that has brought about his fate (thru) his own doing at large part. Hence the Hindu calendar of having no pity towards reform and deflection.

as they have brought about their own destined rush, their lives of chaos and have made of themselves 'creatures of chaos'. These same creatures of chaos are a part of the modern world and the ^{influence of} fragmentation - they bring cacophony of disparate vibrations, frequencies or wavelengths, of forces that impinge upon these with a not powerful enough to resist their influence. These same - better misnomers - those who have given themselves over to disintegration, almost certainly, by virtue of their inner weakness, render themselves objects that can be possessed or observed by others who draw them vicariously of their energy or who avatars them as a physical vehicle expressing their longing their consumer pleasure of the human mind. This process is what the jaws who are almost certainly bound up with these either encourage in their media and the culture of decadence they create, practices which open are up to damage possession and dissection, practices include baroque clubs which play low vibrational frequency music that correlates with the heart beat and activate the reptilian brain (fight / flight / freeze, etc.) and this in conjunction with the power of drugs and alcohol that reduce the power of the will and create a catatonic state of consciousness (a catatonic meaning 'going away from or out of - i.e. out of oneself, out of the centre of one's being towards the periphery - disintegration) that opens them up to these possibilities of transforming an otherwise stable and controlled individual into a 'creature of chaos' and precipitate their 'downfall', their disintegration towards self destruction. They, less enticed by the jaws' mind control and 'entertainment culture' (degenerate culture) have 'chosen their destiny' and have braced themselves to conflict that lead downwards like the serpent ^{tail} of the hydra / germander / eep winding itself around the frozen hero and dragging him down into the abyss, into the darkness of the soul and ultimately don't quite put upon the remaining elements gradually towards their natural telos or end through the force of their causality. / This metaphorically one can dispose them clearly as they create themselves to whatever extent in life and become who they are and decide whether they will have a future or go to the extent of due is possible for them as an individual entity given their condition. The jaws, too, a mixture of elements contains a possible of chaos and their behaviour demonstrates that inner tension that should together only to a rigid extent as Evola points out in his work 'Theosophy of sacred doctrine' by their rigid religious ^{moderate} ~~extremism~~, as exiles some of laws which regulate every facet of their lives and, failing that influence they are as a madman loosed from a madhouse to run amok and into the four corners. The jaws by contrast will only adopt these behaviours in a society wherein the soul of the collective is completely chaotic, the culture of the society being a corruption of the soul type and its externalization. The culture that is created under the jaws' influence is that of chaos and the culture populated who must remain in the savage have a very difficult task ahead of them to overcome the disintegrative influence of the jaws.

Tyranny of the majority : The collective consciousness or egregore (thought-form) that is formed by collective of biological entities (people, animals, plants, etc.) is structured and developed as a resultant product of the sum total of all factors in the environment is in general a function of the sum total of all sentient life interacting with itself - forming an egregore in a given place (a given dimension and spatio-temporal context). This egregore is qualitatively the structure formed like a Venn diagram of all overlapping and interpenetrating souls of the sentient entities/biological systems in the environment which makes it either an entity that is anagoge (self-developmental) or catagoge (self-destructive) based upon the harmonious or cacophonous nature of this entity. In today's modern world the collective consciousness ~~rather~~ conduct of the 'volk choir' of the collaborators of desperate sentient entities in a single environment which makes of that entity a violent, chaotic structure that reciprocates chaos as a false peak partial screen of violence that is the resultant product of that cacophony that amplifies the chaos through its over time, forming a relatively distinct egregore that imposes upon the population and exerts an influence upon it, a negative and untold influence. Even a collective consciousness is not only catagoge (generating break-down / destruction) but is also anagoge in the sense of its collapsing in on itself and merely amplifying the chaos of those causal elements that have led to its existence have not been prepared and thus perpetrate chaos leading eventually to a physical manifestation of that chaos through the form of the Holocaust - racial holy war. The mind control of the Jew is such that this chaos is perpetuated and to oppose it amounts to a transgression of morality (the morality of the catagoge society) and creates a reaction in the part of the populace against the transgressor who is sought out to be punished and even willing for pointing out the obvious truth that such a society is what it is, namely an inherently chaotic one doomed to erupt in race war once a certain tension of the collective consciousness is attained based upon the intensity of emotional and number of elements it contains that ~~lead~~ ^{sum} to a selfbreeding inharmonious / cacophonous state of being that will on the basis of causality erupt in what is called 'violence'. However to attempt to warn others about the inevitable is portrayed by those who are the white pillars who control that society as the harbinger of violence simply for attempting to prevent violence or to oppose it. Thus he is the crucified one, the witch who the masses seek to hunt and burn at the stake in the name of the catagoge 'morality' of the catagoge society, the morality of 'egalitarian pacifism' - pacifism in relation to all of that which is a mirror image of truth, namely 'egalitarian pacifism' and towards all of that which is 'Other' to itself manifesting a violent intolerance. This is the way in which the egalitarian program of the hidden men (Jews, Freemasons, Jesuits) operates: it creates the third club dubbed moral to abuse them on dedicated and advance to can at the present time it mean his destruction - more triumphs. / "do something" The agent provocateurs of the JOG (---) system are perpetually attempting to encourage the naive youth to 'do something' which translates cynically to action of a timely McVeigh style pop only acted at in real time. Thus the jaws and feet counter would love as it gives them fodder for their great mill, enables them to raise to plaudits or of 'oh oh oh! never again! never again!' and portray an effort which is not disproportionate, white and male as victim of all of that which is before and white and male thus create a villain vs. victim dynamic and representing themselves as justified according to the 'morality' of self defence against aggression. To "do something" in this context against a powerful opponent would make sense only when the collective which one claims to represent is in sufficiently desperate circumstances to warrant the desperate measure. However there is no way the time for such things and should such a time occur it will be only amidst extreme chaos that is palpable for oneself in his occupational place - a chaos that can be observed from a bird's eye view ground perspective and cross referenced with others in different regions via CB radio or other communication modalities. To 'do something' at a time when food and shelter are readily available and when an entire spy grid is established with cameras, laser and police helicopter spotting and relaying the population to surveillance says the clock would be a foolish and even one should if he would contemplate such a course of action, judge things by their fruits, i.e. by the consequences of whether or not it would be overall beneficial rather than simply dedicated for the individual to 'do something' - overall is related to the 14 words and adjusted to ^{each one} to the 23 words "....."

Doing something that would be probably minimal and which would expose one to the scrutiny of the JOG is advisable only when "desperate times call for desperate measures" and the outcome whether one lives or dies as an individual is overall better than where all things being taken into consideration, items of factor: causality; the magnitude of the losses ^{and costs} of target; the harm that one and each other might incur as a probable consequence. Now one must deliberate and subject all of his actions and outcomes related to the proposed course of action to practical calculus, a rigorous cost benefit analysis before deciding to 'do something'. The circumstances of the individual and the individual himself determine the course of action - to act or to forbear from action. The prudent and courageous act with deliberate and advice by the maxim of Aristotle "When man has a goal and then ear to the attainment straight way he acts." "Do something" yes but do something prudent and effective not foolish and dare in the of the moment else one follows the course of fear and fall from the high hang reflected the wise man who advised him of the consequences of his actions when he attempted to fly towards the sun or was at work and fell to the craggy rocks below ^{under heat} of the sun.

Queen Bee In the Jewish Freemason beehive dwells the Queen Bee. The hive around them all capitulate and before whom they must prostrate themselves as the happy land in the beehive. The Queen Bee spends herself with her consorts. The politico heads layers and counters whose lives are based upon service to the hive. Thus the system is inherently communitarian and these 'commune' beehive society is inherently female collectivist where each and all must conform and bow before the dictator from above of the Queen who perpetually creates excellent laws and rules that must be adhered to by the 'goats' who are subordinate to herself. Of course the Queen Bee is just necessarily an existential female but rather the entire hive of material females who to whatever degree possible serve themselves by serving the collective of which they are a part and ultimately who over the ready when should materially mate themselves being part of power in a visible form they are nevertheless bound to the Queen Bee at whatever political or material level and thus to the Queen Bee, the collective of females who concern themselves with themselves foremost and attribute themselves with their own sex preferably regardless of creed, color, race or beliefs. The belief system or value system of the female is machinist and self oriented and tolerates only that degree of itself which is a utility for its own maintenance after which time it is discarded. The example of a male who was an alpha male made a man figure and who spent his life gathering money as a reindeer of his value he could with as means of purchasing a female for himself and after devoting himself to confining upon her the fruit of his labor he found himself unimpaired of all of his life's substance and no longer able to continue to provide the excellent advantage that the female craves. Thus the male must serve the Queen Bee and the event he fails to serve her is discarded as of no utility. His specific value consists of being a sword and shield of the Hellen of Troy, of being a provider of material advantages and cheap thrills beyond that nothing at all.
Thus his function within the Freemason beehive is to serve the female and to direct all of his activities toward service to the female and her particular wants and needs. Thus at a macro political as well as at micro political level both publicly as the 'warrior' or political hawk or privately as a 'partner' in the economic context of sexual relations. All of that which relates to important benefits concerning ways to females is looked favorably upon by the machinist and everything which resembles a taking away from females (in terms of time, money and effort) constitutes a detriment a transgression of the moral code of machinist. It dwelled all females together and all females understand intuitively the nature of me at least at their basic level of animality can understand and thus know just to hammer their mate and get them to put the cart or the key a gradual purpose where they are concerned. Thus the females will attempt to seduce the males of the system who have gone on could possibly go rogue and deprive the live of their power (time / space and effort) of their biography with a female companion who can break the male back into the system and harness him again. Thus to perhaps stretch the metaphor of the live the females are like flowers which should ground the live to ensure that the doge and potential noble ^{male} remains around the live and loyal to the live and doesn't 1) flee the live and live the life of an isolate independent of the live or 2) to turn against the live as a death's head with the female done hanging himself into the death's head with who infiltrates the live and tears it for head feeding upon the royal jelly and cannibalizing the soldier and other slaves who stand in its way. The symbol of female maternity or power is the subjugation of masculine - solar power through attempting to induce passive means of speech to the subjugation of the male - to perhaps themselves as 'innocent, playing innocent' or a comparatively weak and defenceless type and thus exploiting physical weakness as a mechanism of driving the male and entraining him to play his mandated role as a protector and defender of his own kind. This is consistent with the supposed offering of the gratification of the sex drive in contrast to the direct, projected approach of renewing the territories of men and capturing them and the life force they contain as a black widow vampire. Thus the female power of the maternity operates on the basis of a passive aggression in the light of the paedophilia. Sreemata Ghosh's 'Saffragrass' (non-violent resistance) a preference of war ^{childhood} that serves as a means of subjugating and potential approach on the part of the male. The jews and their freemasons and church priests are all of a female nature - their value given purely lunar - feminine in the essence - palliative / passive aggression; hypocritical / false / sarcastic - based upon femininity and the preference of acting without. The value system of the jews for their patriarchal and matriarchal and derived from the mother goddess which the jews and all other original mediterranean gods worshipped (arabian; phoenician; north african, etc.). The god jehovah and Allah are both female deities and the concept of jehovah's witness mounted by the jews is an extremely feminine rhetorical device that is a reversion of the solar god of Apollo and other Aryan deities that jews have attempt to erase for the infernal record and ultimately from the blood memory of the white race and the latter with the generation of the latter by the jews and all of their races and slaves the sun appears to have set on the white man and yet it will shine on the horizon of the decline of the west. However contrary to the aggressive subjugation of freemasonry and further the west may set but the sun will rise again heralding a new day, a new age and the decadent west that has been subverted and subject to the hidden feminine influence of the jew. The maternity exists now in its debaucherous way overtly presenting itself over all as the pathetic victim of a power played - The mismanaged control/leadership of the sacred feminine, the bloodthirsty Kali who sacrifices into itself all of that which it has no need of and vaporizes the rest as a black widow eating over the corpse she has chained off her life blood.

The sex drive will drive deeper into the mind and is shackled by invisible chains thence the chain of mind control, indoctrination: The sex drive and prospect of confusing desire/need. The female represents herself as offering. It is these two chains that bind the devotee to the system and it is these two chains which the drive just over come wonder to metamorphose from a dove into a death's head moth to sever the chain of passion and emotion that binds him to devotion to the female who he of course would not be able to serve should he submit to this yolk - as the white goddess/gods would surely make forward as he served the system which predestines his own ultimate destruction. The destruction of the collective soul / consciousness of the human through a gradualist erosion of the gender of the white race. This to become paganism and lead to a female and all of the elements of conflict that entails is to serve himself a death warrant.

Thus, as paradoxical as it appears, in order for the white man to save his soul and the collective soul of which he is a part he must sever the chain that have historically bound him to the mother goddess (who becomes his god and he her devoted servant) - The disruption of the sex drive which must be severed must be submitted and, when no longer possible through natural means exhausted asopenhauer said to "pull it out by the root." This is not to say he must turn and avoid women, but that he must ensure that he doesn't allow the sex drive to shackle him into a life of servitude through which he can be made a useful fool to serve the system and thereby to serve himself up on a silver platter for the blackwidow without control fear. / The Queen Bee who permeates the hive with her electromagnetic men's call must be over all and one must become a death's head moth in order to subvert the wishes of the sacred feminine and exert dominion over the environment eating at the seams of the Queen who monopolizes the royal jelly for herself and employs her drone soldiers to entice the worker bees. The key to getting into the Queen's chamber can only be had through a self motivated metamorphosis of the dove into the death's head moth: one must overcome to passion and in complete self control who is not fed any by the emotional and devour nature of the Queen Bee.

He must, therefore, not allow the blood of the race employ the drive mechanisms of reason and supernatural abilities to penetrate the blindness of shields' law and to defeat the age old machinery which has fewer to working for the human race.

Interlopers Helped hindrance. Christians and their descendants the liberals / leftists have taken upon themselves the obligation to bear the burden (in a plain and hypocritical way) of saving the scientist and carrying the weightier information of their backs. This is the belating motive of the egalitarian race hatred whose sense of self worth, to demand for belating false guilt on the 'inevitable' week. Those who are overtly inferior mind body and soul and who inflate the ego of the anti-dion which is the belating underlying motivation of the posture of their false guilt. They have taken upon themselves an obligation to betray their race and to deal for them only the the substance necessary for the realization of their proper destiny which is the fulfillment and perfection of their species to be. Thus the delay of the white race is hindering and impeded by the interloper who stands in their path towards the realization of greatness. These interlopers additionally seek to interfere with any who demonstrate sufficient action or words the rights disagreement with the egalitarian - pacifist demand hypocritically as pay their usual pseudo approach to indirectly oppose one and all who contribute a threat to their terrorist system (they apparently pacifist more but in reality they the means of sabotaging people in a d. interference and underhanded manner (stealing; having people freed; bringing them in bag lined and then creating a dwelling; they conduct harassment in the form of gang stalking, etc). Such is the future cause of the interloper the saboteur of the higher type and the subverter of civilization in the case of the higher social society of the Aryan. The interloper denies their sense of importance (high despising the other or they can't afford anything themselves are not a credit and thus have recourse to a defender as their means of attending their bag always of course behind the facade of 'helping others' of 'saving the scientist' and efforts to undermine the Aryan's progress and their superior essence (high feeling death and leveling high the use of their white slaves who they hide behind as their cover) they purport to defend using them as cat paws and drawing the chestnut of the Aryan's superior from whatever fire might burn the threat. Interlopers speak peace aggressively not having the courage to fight the Aryan head on as they understand they would lose and thus must employ their statements as a white to save their pyrrhic victories which will inevitably amount to defeat regardless of the consequences. The cause for all healthy minded white who ensure their survival and to minimize the damage caused to themselves by the enemy interlopers (Christians / Armenians / leftists, race hatred of all shape and variety).

Monkey man: The feral beats of the totem and the jumping and shaking of the savage is the tradition of their ancestors, the natural athletic modality of bag which captures the habit of their savage, their essence. To jump and dance in tandem with the drum in wooded ritual and to prepare for sacrifice the weaker of their tribe - such is adherence to natural law, to jungle law, where with major right of the law of the jungle prevails. And this is life.

For them, for those who exist in a state of nature, who exist in a purely animal form or rather are at best hybrid form bag one of the best men, the supposed entities who were mixed with the white. Indeed the willow of this earth. These creatures find this to be a perfectly desirable state of affairs and indeed the only state they were aware of. The only form of existence, no other words, known to them and the children who missionaries and pros for that part who came and visited them and ordered upon them their civilization (and whatever rudimentary field it existed). Indeed the aristocratic people (people of the earth, the 'mud people' or 'mud') were lead out of the mud by the white man and enabled to develop themselves - such was and has been the naturally empathetic character of the white man who has the tendency toward other-regard a feeling which was distorted and perverted by the interests of various interests - colonialist notions of the Jew which led the white man to the scaterch justice upon and contempt for the natives who was not their proper due (that which they could do anything with and that which was a reflection of their potentiality to be - if such they had, which was practically an error of the white man to confer upon them anything at all). Thus the natives had their gifts reward and ceased to appreciate their state of athletic bag.

However, the Jews came upon the scene of the white man's land and, after acquiring power and prestige in financial matters, the interests of retaliation and intermarriage with the natives they managed to alienate themselves so that they were then able to beat the natives out from their bag and enable the interests of white society with natives and in doing so to use the latter as their stepping stones to degrade and ultimately destroy white society. The nature of the beast - of the negro white - will never change good or evil as the Ethiopian doesn't change his skin or the leopard his spots. Accordingly the Jews, who we had had become even a few decades ago, in more ancient times as long ago as 100 years (such as in America), in their total control used their mechanism of the press and media to provide a conduit for the savage to spread their cultural virus into the minds of the white population. The culture which was for them a healthy just as the very blood which was healthy for them and unhealthy even destructive of white when transferred upon by the other. The virus was translated from the form of jazz music and comedic film and melodramatic literature which exposed up the weaknesses of the white master to the 'bad blood' of the savage culture. This seemed more at home at the same time globally in all white countries and in all white colonies as the document "non-white as instrument of genocide" ^{illuminates}.

The entangled knot of the negro and his Jewish captives was the fine the organ grinder and his monkey played to beguile the white man as a means of getting him up for the gapado.
The word was inferior - in the most literal sense - with the vibrator that combined its form neither melodious nor musical in any real sense debasing the consciousness of the white man through lowering his thought vibrator - But more it was a debasement through the low sad, his most physical essence, being dragged down to the level of the pig, being dragged from civilization into savagery with his so-called 'clandestine brothers' the savages who in his warped understanding of reality were now considered superior to the Jewish individuals of darkness - his equals, children of the Jewish god who were in the mid of the white man - not far away. The absolute (a reduction to absolute - levelling equality). The music played by the negro and the Jewish band leader was that of Heggie pumpkins elevated enormously above that level but dangerously so as the drumming beats of the negro moreover worked up the dark energy matter entities he called the orishas in his native Chine and the Jew referred to as angels in their religious fanaticism called the old testament and talismans. These orishas were and indeed are, common to both, felt the wars of yesterday the negro and the savage played in their primitive backwaters was that of the orishas - the same beats per minute, the same rhythm it may be called 'rhythm' that was and is the default setting of the biological beings called autochthonous people (peoples and people) that has now arisen the same effect - that the congruence of dormant entities who are capable of doing powerful blood sacrifices and attaching themselves to those who are properly prepared and conditioned to receive as their hosts, especially that of a pure mind, the planet being the white man.
This is the source they these entities seem to feed off and it is these entities the Jew and the savage are bound up with. The nature of the music of the mother is merely black magic vapourism and cannibalism. The congruence of what has been called 'clandestine' and their attachment to the wisdom of sacrifice. The drum of old were of human skin and the singers of sacrifice, at clandestine they were more elegantly featured but were nonetheless the same in structure and function. Now they have affected the form of sophisticated beyond belief that of the audio gangster of the rap set - now the drums provide the other broad cast from cell phones and become integrated into the warp and twist of the mind of the 'groom'. The shea water looks up as a demagogue the the beating of the vibrator of the white brother complex, which brings down the once pristine and pure world of the hyacinth to the level of a jungle, with the woodpecker sound of cell phones. Midway a man hypnotic and a prepared to the orishas, mud shadows, and demons - call them what you will, the groom are being sewed up as a sacrifice at the altar of modernity. There are no longer any need of drum drums so the drums are mirable are EMF frequencies that beat upon the human membrane of their mind. The vaporization of human and shamanic energy is turned on 24/7 and the groom are sewed out in their Actual reality piece

Baal worshippers The Jews and all of them affiliates are worshippers of the great mother goddess and her consort in mirrored form throughout the history of this world and which cult has existed in profane form throughout its multitudes genres. The glibble goyim who have been conditioned to 'buy into' this cult as the sons of mainstream religions can't deal with are coerced to 'believe' at the part of the sword, the threat of bag lunch at the stake or other common argument to disengage the irrational mind and leave aside any search for the truth which would threaten the cult in its 'true light' and dispel the myths and illusions made by its press to hoodwink the goyim). Thus there exists the two tired shadowed saints: The slaves and the masters with the latter becoming more and more corrupt as they gain greater and greater power expanding their power and influence in a viral manner, the slave caste is full of all wars and revolutions becoming even more numerous and the master caste becoming progressively fewer as they defeat their captives in small groups - ~~the organ else, who from release, already~~ ^{they are an elite, who from release, already} healthy individuals to oppress them. These press ~~the themselves~~ Baals - A modern parlance (waiters worshipping at the altar of the mother goddess) the all-seeing eye and gentlemanly behavior of the minor of them vandy before gabulon & Jahovah the god's dady of the mother goddess ^{head} and Baal and ^{of it} ~~A~~ hard near eastern deity as Bill white proved in his book "The Traditions of the Mother"; Baal and omni - the wing and dog god form that metamorphosed into Jesus' as Achanja is in his "The Christ conspiracy" has proven). Thus the cult still retains its place across all mainstream religions whose inner core is the mother goddess cult merely adjusted for different times and places - different biological group spread, i.e. 'culture' / 'race' call them what you will that are marketed to let the inner core priest caste thus the existent religious formation with its liberating eschatology and its importance of universal moral code those which mandate the assimilation into the original faith upon whom they are based the existent stigma in the first place typically the establishment of the throne of a tyrant after the formation of revolution. The broad masses have had to swallow the imbedded stigma of the elite through threat of force - the tangible and credible threat of the weapons of deprivation (the rack; the torture device; the funeral pyre; the guillotine; torture, etc.). Thus the mass mind of the slave caste is conditioned to a state of abject servitude and passive acceptance of tyranny - if they resist the ^{gears} ~~press~~ of the state turn and initiate the cascade of medical pain that forces them back in line based upon a last-pennational cal also of means reinforced with the aid of realpolitik of the populace in the most efficient way. The Baals of the mother goddess cult are all variants of the mother goddess - at the core of mother mary; nutt; Kali^{ma}; afterah; astate; estora; gavia, etc. They are simultaneously odres; orphens; baal; ^{claymore} ~~(water)~~; dwat; etc. They are the self-understood 'Minutemen' they who fly the white star of dragonfly extinction (of sexmagic and texture murder capitalism and rapism) across the heavens about power and traffic with the entities who feed vapourishly from the pain and death.

energy that is given off by the victim of their power. These Baal are the men-gods that understand life as a constant act of a service to self under the facade of a service to the collective, to the state. This is the essential despotism that is imposed upon and unwillingly replicates outwardly because inherent in all of those with whom they subject to their influence was incentivized (money, power, respect, etc.). These latter then 'shabbas goyim' are the self-absorbed 'yes' men and women who eagerly provide themselves before the idol of man as a means of getting their piece of the pie of whatever they can get 'without such in the way of qualms or scruples as to those they harm. ~~But~~ Their capacity as an instrument of the Baal power who they may never see but who govern them over from the system of incentivization they ultimately control from above. Thus ~~regimented~~ ^{these} is the apex of power - a power hidden from the broad masses, invisible and pervasive in the image of the 'great mother' who, who overarches all and of whom all are equally apart in their conception of this. The patriarchal ideology of the new east - all are 'one' in essence, 'Bag and the one' of ^{Parvada} ~~the one~~ / the mother goddess cult function as a visible power that pervades the environment and reaches everywhere. The effect of its power which ultimately co-opts the gendarmes (police, military, paramilitary forces) creates a state of psychological stress in the state class who understand correctly that they are indeed slaves and have no other means to break free of that which imposes itself upon them from above. Indeed they are living in an open air prison which is the mother goddess' name state, her state and then ~~inherited~~ ^{inherited} framed, framed, and realated a pattern of in Foucault's 'Discipline and Punish'.
The patriarchal feminism of the state amounts to a trauma based mind control that breaks down resistance if not in implicit threat than in actual engagement with the population. Thus a direct forgetting of domestication often through use of directed energy weapons (lasers, etc.) or through the physical brutality of the police or through the yet more sinister methodologies of gas, drilling and format imposed upon the individual through imposed rituals, plausibly deniable and covert techniques which only he may be aware of such that more may understand what is going on or care and thus the forgotten individual is left alone as a isolated target that can be picked off with impunity. ~~and~~ the actions of the strong arm of the name state has cloaked in the appearance of secrecy and at most doubt as the part of the more aware and independent thinkers of the state. who themselves may be directed to a similar form of abuse. The baal are frankly bent on having their way - a global government ever ad and moving with an ad and such in the difference melted down into an amalgam of 'goyim' that can be shaped into bricks in the wall of Solomon's temple. They, within and, are the carats of the mother goddess, are remembered by a cold ritual, not of passage and have bestowed in immortal body of vajra. Thus such inter going before, so they believe, 'great and evil' understanding reality as more causality and not devour of any moral dimension save, paradoxically and contradictorily, their own morality of 'inner' which ultimately is extinction, death. They are thus the priests of the death cult of Kali ma and stake their thirst upon the blood of the innocent not without, however, conferring upon their departed ~~gods~~ with whom they fraternize and attempt to derive occult power for themselves absorbing the world into themselves and yet being about the death of everything worldly (highly expressive their death cult moderately and tender, what they call 'peace' which is merely death, the cessation of all activity, of all dynamic force and of all differentiated order into an undifferentiated chaos which is the master goal of the cult. Thus the ultimate tender goal of the cult is the extinction - nothing or no - of all into abstract nothingness, the reduction of all being into the gray pit, the cosmic vacuum or cosmic void with its corrosive water that erode the form which emanated from them and thus a reversal to nothingness from being. The black feel they have no need to concern themselves as they have already attained immortality; they have already transcended in immortality their mortal coil and thus merely spend their lives catching to absorb more and more of the energy of their god, have come not themselves. The legend of mixed persons in partly related to the expansion of the cult and the saturation of its activities as do the perpetual war and revolution based globally and fought with none of high sounding ideals which have no basis in fact or indeed in reality save for the longing for death and making forward to ultimate end goal of 'universal 'peace' which are the objectives of the operators - more workers of the death cult who saturate the earth ^{the latter} ~~and~~ has duped in by myriad channels and paths. The motto of the Jew 'Miklan dan' is ~~advertised~~ ^{advertised} as meaning 'healing the world' when in reality it means 'clearing the earth of the Qlipoth' of the materialistic evil shell, they who are not Baal but who are merely 'gods'. The prophets of the cult which work with these Baal are almost entirely of an occultic and demonic force that under the order of the ^{latter} ~~former~~ in their architecture of chaos. The more does the more pain and suffering. The more does the more energy released by the gods upon who the earth feeds. Thus what follows from the premises of this cult is perpetual chaos a war extending to the extent there exists evil and to the extent there exists when they are bound up exist in their current form. The gene DNR-3 of the Jew is that associated with schizophrenia which predisposes them to paranoia or delirium by these authors. Thus indeed, as I have said, the Jew are the midwives of the demons which are the forces of chaos who seek to vaporize the world and absorb into themselves the bio energy, the life force of the world. Both the authors and their midwives the Jews are causal mechanisms of the death cult in its 'progression' - progress toward the grave, and the Jews as ^{midwives} ~~goddesses~~ along with their fellow priests in the cult of the master goddess.

Christians and Lenin : In the days of old in ancient Rome the Jews had agents who were selling yet another variety of their self destructive greed of egalitarianism - it was called, well in fact it had no name save perhaps 'Christianism' derived from the main scrupulous proposition of that greed named creder who, like Lenin at a later date was a rabble rousing vehicle of civil unrest. Creder presumably (though the latter however not the erstwhile origin of his greed) picked up his brand of egalitarian prestige when the fallen Jews in Quynan in the dead sea amidst the escapee feet and water presumably a paid agent of the sale of this 'greed of decapitation' levelling equally bringing down the higher to the level of the plebeian masses. Such has always been the protocol of the Jew and was stated presumably in what was to be called synthesis with nationalism and/or with socialism in periods. This greed and its deleterious influence has always been the Jew's way of bringing nations (conspicuously white) together under their despotic control under the facade of saving the 'brood masses' against the 'iron' oppressors who on the podium of the elders of Zion acknowledge as their only protector. For the sake of the Jew's power or the mass grave killed the Jew not have any willingness to permit them to live if they haven't any economic utility then they are carved up as a sacrifice in war, rebellion and slave labour to give up their energy to the dark energy matter entities with whom they trade. / The greed of egalitarianism is the most control program that feed and drive the free mind into a higher mold even that the programmed goyim ('Goyim' in Hebrew) will be their head and head from their before the Jewish depicts the rabbinical oligarchy. They, these goyim became the animated tool of the Jew and are programmed puppet on the electromagnetic control-diamond influence exerted upon them the utopian goyim. The usage of the black magic of the chakra coded subtly into the text of Abraham's religion sense as mind control cover and the sound of Hebrew words evoke the entities with whom the Jew are bound (one can infer this based upon the behavior of the mind controlled Abraham's slave every time their programming is triggered with these words which phrase and passages from the bible or Koran. They, the Abraham's fanatic slave mostly and with hardness at the individual who employ the labor and fear that they are accustomed to being and associate with something salvagable and desirable in a less than flattering manner. The relative value like attributes of the character can be easily perceived when placed in a suite and their relative reorganization of phrases such as "I'm just trying to be a good person" or "I'm just trying to help people" or various other phrases such as "I've got to go" and other passages from their text the bible (but bull) and in the case of the muslim a similar fanatic rage and glazed the look when their programming is activated based upon perceived or actual disagreement they are fanatically at others and with a similarly self righteous look of arrogance on their face. / This can be seen that the egalitarian greed spawned of the warped mind of the Ischardala the Jew - under as mind control program to mobilize masses to facilitate the agenda of a leveling equality. Those who oppose this agenda are subject to harassment and growth to the point of fortune murder by the egalitarian cult. The gypsy who have afflicted themselves with their own weakness to be rendered gypsy as the 'doats beater' of the Jewish overlords, the priests of the order of melancholia who uphold them as African negroes to fear and and destroy this multifarious means the resistor or dividend. The entire Negro as brand with are also presumably bound up with these the program has taken hold of subjugating such that they are then put under the thumb of these controlling influences and mobilized to carry out whatever action these entities motivate them to carry out, typically that which threatens to break the hold on their programs and to prevent the author from continuing to dominate the gypsy who are perpetually in a state of fear and trembling by having had the 'fear of the lord' programmed into them by their masters through the various indoctrinated techniques that they the Jew employ through their mind control methods. The mainstream religious organization call egalitarian and this all binding together the same global government involve through different angles of approach: 'brotherhood', 'humanity', 'divinity', 'Man', 'godhood' (p. 5). The inherent pretextual of these religious necessitates that they be spread to the ends of the earth and with varying replicates these inferior nations into the consciousness of all and ready to advance the leveling equality right by the Jew creating from within nature chaos and ruin (renew of the nation) whereby the Jew can serve saved up to himself a 'beast' bowl of brain sewage called 'humanity' blended together in the melted pot, the crucible of the bureaucratic state. The inevitable tension and stress such a folk chaos creates to allow much energy release in the pot of the entire and Jew who wish to absorb the wisdom of the gypsy whose ultimate purpose is to serve as an endless 'food' for the priests of the order of melancholia and the so-called angels (perhaps 'devils' would be a better term) with which they are bound up. The dominant and other egalitarian practices gain their waters through that very paganism through fighting by subtle and indirect means of sabotaging and attacking the 'other' that which is other to themselves in the name of what calls itself 'freedom', 'peace' and 'love' which is simply the mouth of egalitarian paganism as a laying down and being down before a federal lord or external authority and 'his' priestly caste intermediaries who administer to 'his' will and dictates obediently in all self sacrifice of reality for themselves. Their strategy for power is to 'kill with kindness' and what they call kindness is the 'other' (even to be 'other' must be assimilated into the wide mind collective consciousness of laymen, the universal great mother and as the ultimate end result extinguished from the earth because 'one' with the universe. Such a false no hearting mixed organism would derive for itself and thus it is through the classical conditioning of programming that the gypsy are converted into the 'other' fixating and in the mind of the Jew ideally at an early age (the earlier the more malleable and thus the better time). The Jew the drama based mind control of the dom, gnom, fear and trembling of the parables of dust, mud and myriad other 'propaganda' and mediums of sense spiritual force or force also transmit the 'truth' and the 'light' to the

to the willful mist of the good making of them righteous and represent in them adherence to the esoteric pagan creed (which is paganism only ~~in the sense that~~ ^{towards itself} and unitedly - pseudo-aggressively - opposed to the other). The usage of these plot patterns of ~~and~~ ^{is} the technique through which the Jew obtains and maintains power over others.

The program have set like brain of his captured pain like a concrete form the sexual connected and neural network having been laid down the year then over India and command from a high high the priestly caste interpretation of the text below within 'in the beginning' and this is connected with the myriad mind control seductive helio at his disposal type of the goxins to 'KMI, my, KMI'. That which calls itself a religion or a world view created around 'peace' and 'love' is absurdly the most violent and hateful and diabolic of all greed ever motivated. This reveals the joy well in his achievement of chaos upon the earth as it is in the name of 'The Lord' and of these ideal related textually through that a war overruling may be waged upon the Spanish Bryan type who has projected upon him the jealous hatred of the frickadella as means of digging down the threat to his power and the minor which reminds him of his captured ugliness and which he wishes to smash. He utilizes his chosen zabié slaves whose mind is controlled of programming and into other than upon the Spanish the latter adhering to the modern operands of their programming (now a function) and caught out acts of extreme atrocity with a look of rabid inferior hostility towards the 'other' who is denounced according to the text and its interpretation which that he is enslaved with the rage and hatred of the 'other' and so is to cover out a shadow that is unprogrammed person or individual would look upon as 'flawed' properly so called. Perhaps this is because these programmed slaves are influenced by these things, these orders to act, the subtle impulses them as a godly voice a voice to force it to turn through the chaos of their pain or perhaps confusion. This would account for the vacant, zabié like look of function which accompanies the usage of the chosen and other 'egalitarian' zealots when their programming is exposed, when their 'egalitarian' - perhaps ideology is exposed and exposed for what it is namely hypocrisy. The attitude which may be described in English as 'layed' a little with the joy and who they give themselves over as the former instrument on the earth to orchestrate the chaos. / The look the author employs as the joy and the goxins robot below them who are perhaps the least conscious of all are the repeated members of the order of melchizedek, the bad priests of zabié and are made pawns for order similar to the dam of the dead wound with the legions of zabié. The best advice when dealing with these programmed zabié is 'disturbance and terror'.
(Disturbance is the key). They will inevitably be forced into the jaws of justice and the lot-like attitude with whom they are bound to be vapored or so far along they cannot find any redemption in some form or other and extract themselves from this mind control programming.

~~Savage~~ The ^{double bind} ~~as part of~~ ^{double bind} ~~new black magic~~ ^{double bind} ~~among~~ ^{double bind} of the ~~goyim~~ ^{double bind} rely upon the ~~double~~ ^{double bind} logic of the double bind to set up their victim and ~~then~~ ^{double bind} and in ~~the~~ ^{double bind} so ~~as to~~ ^{double bind} exempt them from blame ~~by~~ ^{double bind} telling the victim of their ~~motivation~~ ^{double bind} acts what they ~~are~~ ^{double bind} going to do before they do it to them. A prime example of this is in the J.O.G. ^{double bind} ~~system~~ ^{double bind} the white man has been ~~advised~~ ^{double bind} ~~den~~ ^{double bind} obtaining employment. This would be an example of a ~~circumstantial~~ ^{double bind} ~~double bind~~ ^{double bind} where, by force of ~~circumstances~~ ^{double bind} ~~imposed~~ ^{double bind} by the ~~system~~ ^{double bind} the individual citizen is coerced to act or suffer some action that leads to harm against him. Indeed the only way circumstantial double binds can work is through the ~~repression~~ ^{double bind} of ~~doxoi~~ ^{double bind} ~~double binds~~ ^{double bind} ('doxa' meaning opinion in Greek), i.e. double binds of a mental epistemological nature which obscures and conceals or ~~distorts~~ ^{double bind} ~~means~~ ^{double bind} ~~high~~ ^{double bind} ~~imposed~~ ^{double bind} ~~signifiers~~ ^{double bind} and ~~simulacra~~ ^{double bind} the ~~system~~ ^{double bind} ~~architecture~~ ^{double bind} projects upon the screen of the ~~consciousness~~ ^{double bind} of the ~~citizen~~ ^{double bind} the ~~no~~ ^{double bind} ~~seen~~ ^{double bind} as a means of providing information that will influence the ~~goy~~ ^{double bind} to act in such a way that is harmful to himself. The message which constitutes a symbolic (perhaps immediately affecting consciousness has this influence & the commander to the perceiver (auditory; visual or tactile or both other senses or forms of control) or messages / information that constitute command prompts or mental programs that, based on their significance in the context of the system means that influence or even compel the perceiver to act. Thus ^{with} such an influence the individual, the 'man' is operating purely in a reactive state of consciousness such that he has little to no choice but to react according to the direct directives of the system knowing not what he does and having no knowledge of the actual meaning and effect of the sub-order, symbolic ^{developmental} commander. Thus, though the above average person may be able to come to an understanding of these forms of communication the average person is still trapped within the machine operating according to the system's command prompts like a programmed computer, robot or Zai. Thus the power of these affiliates who control the system have put the 'game' in a double bind that employs near indiscernible coded language as a means of concealing their actions against the population and as a means of attempting to educate themselves from human liability for their actions and ensure that are black magid ads against the populace, though forms of 'human (i.e. goxin) relations' being a self-adjusted exploitation of their 'human (i.e. goxin) resources'.

The system in the mass mind by not only a relatively benign (less malicious) symbolic communication (lights; clouds; dunes; bridges; advertisements) but a control grid of electromagnetic mind control is an even more severe double bind that 'imposed' upon the mass mind to manipulate its frequency and to implant certain thoughts and create certain brain states amongst the masses such that they can to a great degree of probability, be regulated, their behavior predicted, explained and subverted in accordance with activated files and databases and reported on the part of the system to control and direct or undesirable behavior, and to capture behavior with the system and its directives. Such is the way the population are regulated at this stage high they were almost certainly always (though) completely subject to such regulatory processes or mechanisms of control by the architects of control. The black magid employed against the gamut of modalities (pharmaceuticals; magic rituals; the integration of gods and demons, law, father and codes from 'on high' via the Shepard perfect magid who seek absolute power absolutely; war; religion and now with the advent of pervasive, advanced technology having the ability to regulate the citizens mind to an even more minute degree such that the notion that 'control' is had ceases to be a fact ^{legitimate} as the masses are so controlled and imposed upon by these advanced technologies that they have no 'choice' in any real sense seeing they can do save one choice, that being a rebellion against the system capitalism and thus the work of one's life is need be - to live the controlled life of a sheep or the choice made by the 'gox', the perfect ^{control} tool of the system - a biological robot whose utility is based only on their exploitability as a human resource and once no longer needed cast aside as an obsolete product. This is not capitalism which which is to blame but the self appointed Baal priests who rule over the globe from their Synagogues and mosque lodges.

"Briars of the system" The fourth occupational government employs myriad snares which hook the soul into self destructive paths which do damn to them and which profit the system to the greatest extent possible. The greatest of habits is of course money. The system advertises an addiction to this as desirable and in fact socially imperative in order for a certain section of the 'goyim' to maintain their social status and ^{self worth} ~~advice~~. This for blue collar the corruption of alcohol is considered imperative a candidate for a quarrel or maintaining their 'respect' of their peers to such an extent that alcoholism amongst blue collars becomes the norm and their health deteriorates which is the ~~desire~~ influence sought by the system. The white collar demographic is encouraged to devote their time to conspicuous consumption and the corruption of expensive drugs so that their money is cynically being consumed and they have nothing of their own remaining to present to posterity while the Jews absorb all of the wealth into themselves as the recipients of the conspicuous consumption as they can and control all of the commercial enterprises or nearly all of them and circulate their wealth back into their own country in an antagonistic relationship to the white head body of christianity space politically. The snares of the Jews also extend to the vulgar forms of social activities that begin from the encouragement of pornography and the proliferation of gay bars to the electrification of roads such that the nuclear family is disintegrated and the concept of white children is made unattainable. The snares of harmful hobbies such as video games and pornography as well as an excessive exposure to the computer feed the 'goy' (seduced or), rendered catatonic through a excessive drag into a hypnosis machine which keeps him in a lobotomized brain state through which he can be mind controlled and becomes susceptible of having subliminal messages transmitted into his mind manipulating his consciousness. The snares of the system are put in place through the personality of the populace who fail to react to them being placed in their position to generate harm and through their ignorance of their own good all amplified by the ubiquitous influence of the media and the organs of information which constitute a hyperrealized world of simulated concepts, of created lusts fed by the machine and its multi sensory bombardment of consciousness, the rope of the mind by the Jew. The system is indeed a grand performance more itself and one is born aware of such that he is subject to all of its mind snares which condition him to the point of rendering him an instrument of its mechanism - for every action he takes there are equal and opposite reactions that come into play on the part of the system and, by virtue of his place in the system on his own part are caused by himself as well as a reciprocity of cause and effect just as a fly is caught in a spider's web and all of its tremulous struggles serve merely to trip it ever more into its web. All phenomena, protectors and abettors, promoters and prohibitors of the system are designed ab initio to elicit certain reactions from the flies in the web as a means of causing the spider the joy to cause and vapours them blood. If the blood monster could clean the cobwebs from them brains they would have a change - but the heads have been woven symbiotically with their neural webstretches such that only an arcaded master can untangle the threads.

Prostitutes ^{of the state} The system and the apparatus which are prostitutes. They sell themselves to the highest bidder for the most amount of ^{capital} ~~financial~~ they can demand. They are purely egoistic (lower ego) entities whose thought process spans the range of an irrational hedonic animal level feeling to a hyper-rational calculation bent on gain. Capital exists in the form of financial and social - there is no restriction placed upon limits as it is this acquisitive pursuit of status/money/lure a purely expansion of the ego for the sake of egotistically absorbing one's own mind into one's, feeds off the host body of his biological sacred self at the expense of his own mind. Thus he is the parasite of the system, serves himself at the expense of others. The obscenity of the system lies in the lie that it serves others when in reality it serves itself - its prostitute apparatus which demand their profits (status/money) from repeating their actions as serving the collective - their capacity being cannibalistic and drug profits from the control of human populations. They sell the servant as a mechanism of self-enrichment. They are the shepherd kings shepherding the sheeps to the shearing (taxes) and to the slaughter (allopathic medicine) where they can further be cannibalized in terms of their estates which are subject to capital gains tax on the part of their descendants and even activists expropriators. The prostitutes of the system are hypocrites whose selfish egotism is merely concealed behind the mask of a blind 'other' regard. The system's apparatus, the governmental officials and quasi-governmental bureaucrats working in quasi-private sector enterprise (immigration service; private security; emergency bluekeepers; ports and airports; higher central command; intelligence and drug bluekeepers, etc.) - these are all prostitutes whose work and the bureaucracy to regulation and control of these who are assisted and have centers prohibited for them or imposed upon them by virtue of their capacity as a 'citizen' or 'agent' of these service providers. The class, the citizens are the providers of the ^{bureaucratic} prostitutes creating a degree of protection which is the collective dependency called 'dependency' where all are forced to prostitute themselves to a 'system' of regulation and control which serves itself. The pump bureaucrats at the highest levels are all enslaved to the system though they have the greatest power they are perhaps (the water speculators) the most subject to regulation and control and are perhaps controlled and regulated by dark energy matter entities which dwell in a different dimension and yet have a ^{hidden} a despotic sway over the population of the elite who have become possessed by these entities through their possession of DNA of these four dimensional entities who perhaps have the capacity to enter the ^{physical} bodies of humans and control them and experience what they experience to a degree and/or to manifest in the physical and coexist in cooperation with the human. perhaps this is the mystery of atherogenesis? One can only speculate on this feat assuming they haven't had any tangible experience of this which that serve as corroborate of this hypothesis. Regardless it is fair to assume that the elite ^{pump} ~~producers~~ of the system are themselves prostitutes to the no physical pump which control them. Generalized ~~control~~ ^{control} who have in the case of the Jews the DNMT-3 scaffolding gene that opens them up for possession by these entities and who are almost certainly hybridized genetically demanding with their transdimensional entities. They all save the system, per se, and the system is merely the net of these cardinal parasites who create this matrix to impose upon the co-consumer of the matter a debased dogma standardized but mind collective consciousness what they ^{they} want. Robert grain calls "spiritual evolution" along with god (the gods being these transdimensional entities with whom they are bound and whose intention it is to rule the earth for themselves so that they may "swallow the milk of the goddess" as the vampire entities they are.) The nature of the video group of Doan and mortal Herbert Whelan after Whelan said to enter the earth and a stargate may very well be a revelation of the method and procedure proposed to condition the masses to be receptive to the coming tyranny of these entities, either that or it is yet another clever ruse on the part of the shepherd king Baal prestthe self declared 'god of the lodge' of judeo masonry who are again hoodwinked. The bread makes as means of uplifting "z'n". That the user can only speculate about / what can be understood more concretely however is that the entire system necessitates prohibition - that the lowest tier must predate themselves in dependency on the state and must exchange peace of mind through such dependencies as well as the basic freedom of movement and potentiality to be more than than most state their bag handling within self development; the middle tier suffers a similar fate as a wage slave and the degree of freedom and potentiality to be at different grades of society according to how many one's bag only of course within the otherwise approved confines of the system. Then the Eden or the matrix electromagnetic net which feeds upon the sun total of solar who serve as energetic food that it may absorb and be absorbed and utilized by the elite who are themselves mere intermediaries of the dark entities who have mastered the earth mother into their soul form, an energetic food source they may capture and give themselves by. The prohibitions of the system as the goyim food reserve of the megalomaniac society of the tyrannical matrix itself engineered by the architects of destruction who are themselves controlled from above by that has been called in gematria the archon in the arch "hypostases of the archon" which may very well give clue as to the nature of these beings who seek to vampire the souls of the goyim. And the only hope is to cut off the yolk of the system and its controllers and this by any and all means necessary. To succeed be a prostitute in the system is to cease to exist in the physical but perhaps even sacrifice would be sufficiently meaningful to exist in being lifted in the net and releasing the soul energy of captives souls who are locked in the 'hand of god'; of the gods of the lodge and synagogue and of the hand of the archon.

Zersetzung: The staff of East Germany (DDR) were the secret police whose job was to exert an iron grip on the population in a velvet glove such that all citizens eventually came to understand that the stars might be everywhere. This inspired a climate of fear and of paranoia on the population who eventually were entrained to spy on one another and to self police not only members of their fellow citizens but their own mind. The self regulation and self censorship of the mind was a result of the trauma based mind control of WU-2 which collectively put down any counterforce or discourse that was permitted was forever censored within the box of accepted dogma or if its walls were of magnetic steel that repelled the interlocutor from venturing towards the walls of the cube matrix markets they were captured. The Berlin wall may have come down but the walls of the mind in the case of free people were always glass and in the case of those who had the capacity to overcome their programming they were always up the former were more like their captives than the latter because in their captives. The existence of a microsocial control grid wherein all are subject to the micromanagement of the ruling called 'the state' necessitates that it assume the form of a state like state with enumerable spies and informants who are placed amongst the population to gather intel on potential dissidents, in those in that the regime determine to be ideological enemies or subversives in potential or actual and who, according to the logic of the system, must be interrogated and subjected to gaslighting and, if deemed to qualify as subversives according to the system, subject to punitive measures that subjugate the dissident. The means by which this is achieved is through the gaslighting or community policing of these or other spies (which may be criminal or moral majority types) who then are assigned tasks by what can itself be called 'the system' and who are granted incentives to seek the system in this capacity be it in the form of a sense of importance or a reduced sentence or even a criminal penalty for crimes they have committed; drugs; money; sexual favors. The lined spies play the role of discoverers of 'dissidents', 'subversives' and the gagdathes play the role of a handler as foreman of the 'dissident'. Should the dissident resist, which is what the system wants them to do to any potential ally, the latter can claim they are mental ill or that they should wait a psychological aid, are that is either mandated or undergone voluntarily by the suspected dissident the psychiatric center made use of psychiatric medication, of direct energy weapons and against the dissident with gas to the outside world will simply be regarded as paranoid. Such is the strategy and result of this process 'of zersetzung': 1) gaslighting and community policing handlers, 2) enter into the target with directed energy weapons, 3) refer back to the self-proclaimed authorities (police) about the harassment of the 'dissident' ^{hand} ^{into} ^{speech} ^{web} recover to the police and surveillance 4) psychiatric assessment and institutionalized and a strategy and probable elimination of the 'dissident'.

fantasy as ^{the} fantasy created by the genre are their reality. The gasbating war
